PITTSBURGH, April 4, 1892.

To Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN—I would respectfully ask your honorable bodies for the appointment of one additional Sanitary Policeman for the Bureau of Health, whose duties I propose to prescribe and direct so as to make him an Assistant Meat and Milk Inspector. The rapid and large growth of the city renders it impossible for the Meat and Milk Inspector to look after the various milk depots and stores, and there has been a very large amount of adulteration of milk which it has been impossible to correct with the limited amount of help we have. This is a great and growing evil, and with one additional employee, whose duties I shall prescribe as above stated, to wit: To visit the various railway station at all incoming of trains, and all the large milk depots and stores, and thoroughly regulate and control the milk dealers, so as to prevent this wholesale adulteration of milk, will add much to the efficiency of the Bureau of Health and save the lives of at least many children. The salary of the said appointee to be the same as now paid employees of the Bureau of Health, to wit: the sum of $75 per month.

I would also state to your honorable bodies that the last Councils, under the direction of the Finance Committee, added the sum of $1,500 to the Bureau of Plumbing and House Drainage for the purpose of employing one additional Plumbing and Sewer Inspector, making his salary the same as now paid the present Inspector.

With the very large number of new buildings that are annually put up—last year being upwards of four thousand—it is absolutely impossible for one man to regulate and control the question of plumbing, sewerage and house drainage. This is a very important Bureau, and should regulate and control this matter in a more efficient manner. There is much defective plumbing, sewerage and drainage work being done all over the city by contractors and parties who care nothing about the health and happiness of the citizens, their whole purpose being to have the work done as cheaply as possible; and, as plumbing work is usually hid away out of sight, it is too late after the building is completed to detect and remedy it. With an additional Inspector a close watch can be kept upon all the traps and sewers, as indicated by the plans and specifications that are required to be filed.

I would, therefore, ask your honorable bodies to authorize this Department to appoint an additional Plumbing, Sewer and House Drainage Inspector at the same salary as now paid our present Inspector, to wit: the sum of $1.50 per annum. This will then place the Bureau of Plumbing and House Drainage on the same basis as the Building Inspector's office, to wit: two persons in charge of each Bureau. Even this number is quite insufficient, but it is a step in the right direction, and the granting of these two requests will add much to the efficiency of the Department of Public Safety.

Respectfully submitted,

J. O. BROWN,

Chief Department of Public Safety.

Which was read, received and approved.

GENTLEMEN:—The receipts from various sources of the Department of Charities for the month of March amounted to $421.40, the expenditures for the same period amounting to $5,752.16 and leaving a balance in the appropriation for this department of $78,424.87.

To Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—In connection with the presentation of report of the Chief of Department of Public Safety, exhibiting the award of contracts for sundry supplies for his department for the ensuing year, I would respectfully ask your honorable bodies to withhold action upon the award of electric lighting.

The award of this item is in regular form and it may perhaps be not in my province to object thereto, but I do not deem it to the city's interest to contract for electric lighting upon the present terms as I am confident one half that expense can be saved to the city by the use of gas in place of electricity.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY.

PITTSBURGH, February 1, 1892.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—The records and reports for the year ending January 31, 1892, herewith submitted, constitute my fourth annual report to your honorable bodies, and closes my first term as Chief of the Department of Public Safety.

The record is made and submitted to you. Of the success or failure of the work, you and the public are competent to judge. For its successful administration I ask no praise; and, as for its shortcomings, the magnitude of the work is one element of its failure.

I have had the Superintendents of the various bureaus make detailed and exhaustive statements of the operations and matters pertaining thereto, and would respectfully ask your attention to the clear outline embraced within the scope and sphere of these exhibits.

During the year the Department met with an irreparable loss in the death of the late lamented Gamble Weir, Superintendent of the Bureau of Police. His efficient service, executive ability and wise counsel are greatly missed by the Bureau of Police and the Department of Public Safety.

Entering upon the first year of my second term as Chief of the Department of Public Safety, I invoke your hearty co-operation and assistance.

Thanking you for the cheerful compliance with all requests made by me, I remain

Very respectfully yours,

J. O. BROWN,
Chief, Department of Public Safety.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also,

No. 208. Resolved, That the Chief of Department of Public Safety be and he is hereby authorized to have printed 750 copies of the annual report of the Department of Public Safety for the year 1891, and 500 copies of the Bureau of Health for the year 1891.

Which was read.

And the rule having been suspended the resolution was read a second and third times and finally passed.

Also,
No. 209.

PITTSBURGH, May 9, 1892.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with resolution duly passed by your honorable bodies, a copy of which is hereto attached and made part of this report, I submit to you the information asked for, so far as the same is within the purview of my department.

In the first place you ask for the number of police officers who are stationed at corners and "attending to business for street or traction railroad companies." To this I answer that the following named parties are paid for at the rate of $2.50 per day—the rate of a regular patrolman—at the following corners, to wit:

P. J. Young, corner of Fifth avenue and Smithfield street; paid by the Pittsburgh Traction Company.

Ross Morrison, corner Sixth avenue and Wylie street; paid by the Central Traction Company.

Frank Case, corner Fifth avenue and Wood street; paid by the Pittsburgh Traction Company.

Joseph Baker, corner of Liberty and Sixth street; paid by the Citizens' Traction Company.

Robert Hughes, cemetery gate; paid by the Citizens' Traction Company.

There are in the City of Pittsburgh but 25 police officers doing corner duty, covering 12 corners. They are stationed as follows, to wit:

Thomas Paisley, corner Sixth street and Penn avenue.

Charles Grimes, corner Liberty and Market.

Garret Crossan, corner Fifth avenue and Market.

Edward White, corner Fourth avenue and Smithfield.

Martin Mogan, corner Fourth avenue and Smithfield.

John Kramer, corner Fifth avenue and Smithfield.

John McClury, corner Fifth avenue and Grant.

Joseph H. Smith, corner Fifth avenue and Grant.

William O'Connor, Sixth avenue and Smithfield.

James E. Glenn, Sixth avenue and Smithfield.

Thomas Welsh, corner Sixth avenue and Wood.

P. J. Kennedy, corner Sixth avenue and Wood.

Nathan Givens, corner Sixth avenue and Wylie.

Albert Teeters, corner Fifth avenue and Wood.

William Palmer, corner Thirty-fourth and Butler.

James Bruce, Shady avenue and Penn.

Lemuel Grimes, Penn and Centre.

William Ramsey, Penn and Centre.

H. H. Coleman, Negley and Penn.

John A. Ferguson, Negley and Penn.

Harry Perry, Highland and Ellsworth.

Joseph Dunn, Highland and Ellsworth.

John Ashelman, corner Forbes and Atwood.

Thomas Broderick, corner Forbes and Atwood.

Patrick Farrel, corner Craig and Fifth avenue.

J. W. Hayden, corner Craig and Fifth avenue.

Officer G. M. Cochrane, of the Southside, patrols a beat, but reports at 9 A. M. and works for ten hours. Is stationed at Carson and South Twelfth during school hours.

These police officers are stationed by the Bureau of Police, under my direction, with reference to the greatest protection to the public streets and corners where the travel is greatest and, therefore, the danger greatest.

The Department should have at least 25 additional cornermen. There should be at least one police officer at all street crossings from Smithfield street bridge to Liberty street; there should be the same on Wood street from Fourth avenue to Market, and there should be two cornermen at Sixth and Liberty, one at the corner of Fourth and Market, one at the corner of Ninth and Penn, Seventh and Penn, Eleventh and Penn and Sixteenth and Penn; one on Carson street at the Lake Erie depot, and one on Twelfth and Penn and at the South Side market house.

Pittsburgh is the only city of its size in the United States that does not have, strictly speaking, a daylight force. In Pittsburgh there are no police officers on duty from 6 A. M. until 2 P. M., except the cornermen, who, as now placed, can be reached or called for at any time they may be needed, and are a great benefit to the city. The vehicle travel is so great, a marked increase over what it was some years ago, that it is impossible for pedestrians to cross streets at any angle without danger, as teams go along in long streams and it is impossible to enforce the 15-foot ordinance.

In 1889 there were 14 men on corners, doing corner duty, and to-day we have but 25, covering 12 corners or intersections, although the increase in travel, both by vehicles and pedestrians, has been trebled many times over.

While I am addressing you in reference to this matter, I would respectfully ask your honorable bodies to take into consideration the propriety of increasing the force, so as to enable the Department to cover, at all hours of the day, the entire city.

All other cities in the United States have three reliefs, eight hours each, and every beat in the city is covered at all times, day and night, and all important corners, where travel is heavy and the danger great there is a man stationed; while Pittsburgh has but two reliefs, of ten hours each, and from 6 A. M. until 2 P. M. has no police protection excepting the 12 cornermen above mentioned.

I believe it to be my plain duty to place cornermen at the dangerous points of the city where the safety of the public requires that there should be extra police care and protection; and if, incidentally, street car companies are benefitted by the protection that is afforded the general public, especially to women and children, at the dangerous crossings and points in the city, in excess above that protection that the city is in duty bound to afford corporations, as well as individuals, then the city should be reimbursed by car license.

Respectfully yours,

J. O. BROWN,

Chief, Department of Public Safety.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,

PITTSBURGH, PA., May 31st, 1892.

To the President and Members of Select Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—I respectfully return to your honorable body without my approval an Ordinance (S. C. Bill No. 241) entitled "An Ordinance granting to the Exchange Street Railway Company its successors and assigns the right to enter upon, use and occupy certain streets and highways, and to lease its franchises and property, or either."

Under the ordinance the company will have the right to enter upon and construct its railway or branches or extensions thereof with a single line of track over and along any and all of the following named streets or highways or parts thereof:

Beginning at the intersection of Fourth avenue and Market street, thence along Market street to the intersection thereof with Liberty avenue, thence with the consent of the Allegheny Traction Company and the Transverse Passenger Railway Company along the south-eastern side of Liberty avenue to Sixth avenue and thence with consent of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company and Traction Company along Sixth avenue to Wood street, and to operate its cars thereon.

There are several street railway tracks on Liberty and Sixth avenues at the present time. The Act of Assembly of 1889 expressly says: "No extension or branch of a street railway shall be constructed on any street or highway upon which a track is laid or authorized under any existing charter, except as hereinafter provided. The "hereinafter provided" refers to the use by one company, with the consent of the city authorities, of such portion, not exceeding 500 feet of the tracks of another company, as may be necessary to enable such company to construct a circuit upon its own road at the end thereof.

If the distance from Market street to Wood street is more than 500 feet I cannot see how the Exchange Street Railway Company could, in the face of this provision of the Act of Assembly, construct its railway upon Liberty and Sixth avenues even with the consent of the city and of the company already occupying the streets. If I am wrong in my understanding of the provision referred to in the Act of 1880, I hope some member of Council more familiar than myself with legislative enactments will explain what the law really does mean.

It is hardly reasonable to suppose that the Exchange Street Railway Company desires simply to run cars from Wood street by way of Sixth avenue, Liberty avenue and Market street to Fourth avenue and stop there. Yet that is what the ordinance seems to indicate. The intention must be to lease the franchise and property to other companies, having rights and privileges upon other streets. This statement is justified by the language of section two.

Undoubtedly the object of the ordinance is to authorize the Duquesne Traction Company to run its cars over the route designated to Fourth avenue, thence along that street to a connection at Wood street with the tracks of said company now used on Fourth avenue.

Where the Exchange Street Railway Company or the Duquesne Traction Company acquires the right to occupy Fourth avenue between Market and Wood streets I do not know. There is nothing in the present ordinance granting authority to use that portion of the street. However, the important feature of the ordinance is contained in the provision authorizing the construction of railway tracks on Market street and the operation of cars thereon.

Is it wise to permit street railway companies to occupy this street between Liberty and Fourth avenues? To this question I have devoted considerable thought. I have done more than this. I have talked with many of our citizens in order, if possible, to ascertain the feeling of our people on the subject. I have not confined my interview to persons doing business upon the line of the street, because I realize, and I say this with all respect, that their opposition, while entitled to consideration, is very largely the repetition of history as regards the construction of railways upon any street. I have talked with citizens in all parts of our city, and so far as I am able to determine the sentiment of the community is against the operation of cars on this street.

Market street belongs, peculiarly, to the general public, and the people of the city have perhaps a greater interest in it than in any other avenue. Our city markets are on this street and they are visited by the great mass of the people of the city on every market day. The best interests of the city demand that these market houses should, at all times, be accessible to those who bring to market the goods and supplies necessary to meet the wants of our people. These market houses are busy places on market days, and I firmly believe the running of cars upon the street would prove a constant annoyance, and a perpetual source of danger, not only to horses and vehicles, but to men, women and children. This street is but 22 feet from curb to curb and is one of the most crowded thoroughfares in the whole city. That portion of it between Fifth and Liberty avenues constitute the narrow passageway through which the great mass of people going to and coming from Allegheny City daily pass. Perhaps 50,000 to 75,000 human beings pass back and forth along this portion of the street every day of the week.

Very frequently, especially in the afternoons, the whole street is converted into a footway and crowded with men, women and children who are unable to find walking space on the sidewalk. Add to this mass of moving humanity the innumerable vehicles that are constantly coming and going through this contracted passageway and you will be able to form some conception of the condition of Market street at the present time.

I know it is claimed by the advocates of the ordinance, that it only requires a line or several lines of street cars to remove this pressure and relieve the street. But how a street car rushing into this narrow neck every minute or half minute is to effect this radical change is a problem which I confess my inability to understand. The argument is based on the assumption that, outside of the driver of an iron wagon or of an ice wagon, the people have been taught to believe that they have no rights that street cars and street car companies are bound to respect.

At the intersection of Fifth avenue and Market street, the cars of the Fifth Avenue Traction Company cross Market street one way or the other on an average about once a minute.

If the cars of the Duquesne Traction Company and the cars of the Allegheny and Manchester line are permitted to occupy Market street, what will be the result?

We will have a car crossing Fifth avenue every thirty seconds and a car crossing Market street every minute; in other words the intersection of these two important streets will be practically monopolized by street railway companies. The principal inlet and outlet for the people of two great cities will be turned over to street cars.

That such a condition of things will seriously interfere with public travel and the rights of the people must be apparent to any person who will take the trouble to carefully examine the situation. I am in favor of rapid transit, but I am not in favor of giving railway companies absolute possession of important streets in the business center of the city to the detriment of the general public.

It is the business of this city that maintains and supports our people and insures our prosperity. Street railways are an outgrowth of the prosperity of the city, and while they are a great convenience they ought not to be permitted to interfere with the free and unrestricted use of the streets for business purposes.

The persons most deeply interested in the passage of this ordinance are the persons most deeply interested in street railways and railway corporations.

Paramount to their interests are the interests of the general public which will, in my judgment, be seriously infringed upon by the surrender of this important street. Hoping your honorable body will give the measure the consideration its importance demands, I am,

Very respectfully,

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

PITTSBURGH, PA., May 31st, 1892. }

To the President and Members of Select Council:

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to return to your honorable body without my approval An Ordinance (S. C. Bill No. 14) entitled "An Ordinance granting the consent of the Councils, to the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors, lessees and assigns to enter upon and use certain streets for its railway, and to connect with certain other passenger railways."

The first preamble to this ordinance declares that by reason of the termini of various railways being situate at the intersection of Liberty avenue and Sixth street, the operation of the cars of said Traction Companies is attended with more or less danger to the public.

The second preamble proposes to remedy this evil by making such a distribution of cars of said Traction Companies as will send said cars to other and additional termini throughout the city.

The ordinance then proceeds to give the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company the right to construct, maintain and operate an electric street railway, beginning at end of North Side bridge on Seventh street; thence along Duquesne Way to Water street; thence along Water street to Wood street. Also at an end of North Side bridge to connect with tracks of Transverse Passenger Railway Company; thence along Seventh street to Liberty. Also, at corner of Sixth and Penn to connect with south track of Citizens Passenger Railway Company; thence along Penn avenue to Seventh street, with authority to straddle said track on Penn avenue if permission cannot be obtained from Citizens Railway Company to use the track already there.

Also, with consent of Allegheny Traction Company to connect with tracks of Transverse Passenger Railway at Sixth and Liberty where said streets intersect with Market.

Also, with consent of Allegheny Traction Company, said company shall have the right to operate its cars over all the streets now used and occupied by the Allegheny Traction Company for the operation of its cars, and also upon such other streets as the Allegheny Traction Company, as lessor of the Transverse Passenger Railway Company may have the right to operate its cars on.

Also, beginning at Liberty and Market; thence along Market street to Fourth avenue; thence along Fourth avenue to Wood street; thence along Wood street on Transverse tracks with consent of the Allegheny Traction Company. The ordinance provides, also, that if the Exchange Street Railway Company be authorized to lay tracks on Market street, then the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors, lessees and assigns shall obtain consent of said Exchange Street Railway Company to operate over its tracks on Market street.

Also, that it shall be authorized to agree with such street railway companies as have rights and tracks on Fourth avenue between Market and Wood to use such tracks for the operation of its cars. If permission from other companies cannot be had for the use of tracks on Market and Fourth avenue then the said Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company shall have the right to lay additional tracks upon Market street and Fourth avenue over the route specified.

The ordinance provides for numerous other rights and franchises which I have really not the time to enumerate.

It is an omnibus measure in the fullest sense of the term. It seems to have been drawn especially in the interest of lessors, lessees, successors and assigns. It is evidently intended to convey all the authority and grant all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises which the company may see fit to use or exercise at any time in the future.

It is the most comprehensive and complex piece of legislation that has been submitted to me for approval since I have occupied this office.

Never before, so far as I have knowledge, has any one ordinance conferred such extensive rights and privileges, and these too without one scintilla of compensation to the city. It even contains a provision modifying the section of the General Ordinance requiring companies to pave between the tracks and one foot outside thereof. This paving, as provided by the ordinance, is to be limited to streets not paved with block stone.

The Transverse Passenger Railway Company, which occupies Wood street, paved between the tracks and one foot outside thereof with block stone as a small compensation to the city for its occupancy of the street.

Under this ordinance, the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company is authorized to use the Wood street tracks jointly with the Transverse Company. It will be relieved from all paving because the street is already paved with block stone, and yet the ordinance requires no other compensation. The company is granted permission to operate its cars upon this important street without the payment of one dollar to the city. What is true of this street will apply with equal force to many of the other streets enumerated in this ordinance.

This ordinance succeeds in distributing the dangerous termini mentioned in the two preambles already referred to, but it forgets to say anything about the numerous crossings and corners that this distribution converts into places of constant danger to the public.

Let me refer to one of these: If the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company is permitted to occupy Market street and Fourth avenue all its cars will swing around the corner at Fourth avenue and Wood street and across the tracks of the Wylie Avenue line in order to reach the tracks of the Transverse Company on the east side of this street. We will have cars circling around from Wood to Fourth, and cars swinging around from Fourth to Wood every minute in the day thus converting a corner already dangerous into a place of ten-fold greater danger. I might speak also of Fourth and Market, Fifth and Market, Fifth and Wood and many other crossings and corners, but time will not permit.

I mention these things to show that while the ordinance may lessen the danger, as claimed by the company, at Liberty and Market, it will increase the peril in a dozen other places. And yet there is not a provision in the ordinance requiring the company to station men at these dangerous crossings and corners for the protection of the public.

By-and-by the city will be asked to play the philanthropist as usual, and supply officers who shall be paid by the taxpayers to protect the lives and property of our people from the companies and corporations that have become rich and are becoming richer by wresting gratuitous franchises from the municipality.

Aye, it is said that after awhile an ordinance will be passed placing a tax of fifty dollars on each street car operated on the streets of our city.

Have you calculated the amount of revenue this tax will produce? Well, just about twelve or fifteen thousand dollars; while it will cost the city not one cent less than forty thousand dollars annually to pay the officers required to signal the cars of these companies and corporations at the crossings and corners of our streets.

We are told that street railways are a convenience to the public. No one denies this, but it does not follow that they should be permitted to absolutely monopolize the business streets of the city without some reasonable compensation. They are a convenience, but the people pay for the convenience. They are primarily for the benefit of the companies and the pecuniary advantage of their projectors.

We have given away very many valuable franchises without demanding any equivalent return to the city. Some of these have been utilized by the companies receiving them, while others have been transferred to other corporations for valuable considerations.

Is it not our duty as the sworn representatives of the people to see that these numerous rights and privileges which are a source of so much profit to companies and corporations are made a source of some revenue to our city?

My objections to the placing of tracks or the operation of cars on Market street are fully presented in my communication accompanying the Exchange Street Railway ordinance herewith enclosed. These objections apply with equal force to this ordinance and need not be repeated here.

I respectfully request that that communication be read before action is taken by your honorable body on this ordinance.

Very respectfully,

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

Which was read and received.

No. 336½

PITTSBURGH, June 27th, 1892.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—Herewith I transmit to you options for the purchase of certain properties lying in the East End of this city, to wit: those of John Fite, William Flinn and Charles Lockhart, the terms and consideration therefor being fully named therein.

I respectfully ask your bodies that you shall confirm and approve the same, if, in your judgment, it shall seem commendable.

The properties agreed to be purchased by me for the use of the city are, in my judgment, so purchased at a fair market value.

That which Charles Lockhart proposes to convey he does in consideration of it becoming part of and merged in Highland Park. I have every reason to believe that he offers it to the City of Pittsburgh for this use at a much less sum of money than he would ask and in all probability receive from a private purchaser.

The property purchased by me from John Fite is offered to the city for and at the exact price by me paid, there being no profit arising to me personally or officially therefrom.

The property offered by William Flinn is at exactly the price he paid therefor, and its transfer will have no pecuniary advantage whatever to him.

These properties will, in my judgment, form an exceedingly valuable accession to the properties already owned by the city, and forming Highland Park, the last two named pieces forming part of the main entrance to the park.

Very respectfully,

EDWARD M. BIGELOW,

Chief Department of Public Works.

Which was read and received.

Also,

No. 337.

Mr. Perry presented

No. 340.

PITTSBURGH, June 24th, 1892.

To the Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—Under the provisions of the ordinance of the City of Pittsburgh, approved the 16th day of May, 1892, the Committee on Charities report:

First. Herewith they return to you all the proposals submitted to the City of Pittsburgh under said ordinance, and in connection therewith they also return the communication and recommendation of Robert C. Elliott, Esq., Chief of the Department of Charities.

Your committee beg leave to report further that from personal inspection made by some of the members of this committee, and from all the information they have been able to obtain they believe the recommendation of the Chief of the Department of Charities to be a wise and prudent one, and the property so recommended to be adapted and desirable for the purpose of a farm for the care of the indigent, insane, and poor, and desirable and advantageous for the city to purchase.

Wherefore your committee have approved and do hereby approve the recommendation of acceptance made by the Chief of the Department of Charities, and ask the Councils to approve this report.

In order that all time possible may be saved, your committee herewith return an ordinance authorizing the purchase of the property of George Neeld, as recommended and approved.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. E. PERRY,
Committee on Charities.

Attest:

GEO. BOOTH,

Clerk.

Which was read, accepted and approved.

Also,
No. 311.

PITTSBURGH, June 23, 1892.

To the Committee on Charities:

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with the terms of the ordinance "authorizing and directing advertisements for proposals for the sale to the City of Pittsburgh of real estate to be used for the relief and employment of the poor of said city, and also providing for the reception and opening of such proposals and action thereon, and providing means for the payment of the purchase money of such property," approved the 16th day of May, 1892. I respectfully report.

First. Herewith all proposals submitted are returned to your Committee.

Second. I personally visited and examined each piece of property offered to the city, and heard all parties who desired a hearing upon or about the same.

Third. A careful examination of the whole resulted in my concluding that but two tracts so offered were in any manner suitable for the purposes designed, namely, the farm known as the "Dairy Farm," near Sewickley, and the farm offered by George Neeld. As to the former the only objection I could or can offer is that it lies too far from the railroad. The difficulty of reaching it excludes my recommending it. The property is exceedingly fine, and, for many purposes would be admirably suited.

The farm offered by George Neeld is, in my judgment, the most desirable offered, and the very best suited in every respect for our purposes.

It lies about fourteen miles from the Court House, is located near Mansfield. It is underlaid with coal, has a valuable stone supply, has ample water for all purposes, has a gas-line running through its edge, is in the neighborhood of abundant natural gas supply, has a railroad very near it, and one located right through it, has upwards of a hundred acres of good bottom land; the price at which it is offered is, in my judgment, a fair market value, and, while believing the city would be the gainer by having a larger acreage, yet contains some 240 acres, whereon buildings can be erected and ground left for all the work which may, for some time to come, be required.

I therefore respectfully recommend the acceptance by your Committee and the Councils of the tract or piece of land offered to the city by George Neeld, and in his proposal, described, believing it best adapted and most desirable for the purpose of such farm as the city must have to take care of and maintain its poor, and the one most desirable and advantageous for the city to purchase.

I would also most earnestly recommend that action be taken by you and Councils at the earliest day possible, for the reason that it is imperative that the city shall soon acquire some proper place for its buildings wherein to keep its paupers, indigent and insane persons, the time wherein we can retain possession of the property heretofore held and used by the city for such purposes is rapidly passing away, leaving us but about one year longer wherein to complete all necessary arrangements, including procuring plans, specifications, approval of the authorities of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the erection and completion of buildings, and the removal of the persons who are or may be a charge upon the charity of the city.

I am, with great respect,

Yours truly,

R. C. ELLIOT,
Chief Department of Charities.

May 31st, 1892.

Mr. R. C. ELLIOT,
Chief Department of Charities.

DEAR SIR:—I hereby agree to sell to the City of Pittsburgh, all that certain farm that I own, and situated in the great bend of the Chartiers Creek in South Fayette Township, Allegheny County, Pa., and containing 225 to 240 acres, more or less, for and in consideration of the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) per acre, subject to the right-of-way to the Chartiers Railroad, which passes through the farm, and is 14 miles from the Union Depot. There is about 700 rods of creek front, coal under all the premises; the coal under the adjoining farm is now being worked. The soil is good and mostly under cultivation. There is also a good stone quarry on the premises, and I think a very suitable farm for the City Poor Farm. Hoping you will have this farm examined and a favorable report, I shall be pleased to accompany you and party to the farm at any time, if you so desire.

I remain, yours respectfully,

GEO. NEELD.

Know all Men by these Presents:

That I, George Neeld, do hereby declare the within and foregoing proposition to Robert C. Elliot, Chief of the Department of Charities of this city, to be my act and deed, and desire the same to be recorded as such; and I do hereby agree and bind myself, my heirs, executors and assigns, to sell, convey and transfer to the City of Pittsburgh, by deed of general warranty, all the property in my proposition of May 31, 1892, described, within sixty (60) days from the date hereof upon the payment to me of the consideration therein named.

PROPOSAL.

Agreement and proposal made this 28th day of May, 1892, between Mrs. Henrietta Campbell, (widow) of Shaler Township, Allegheny County, Pa., party of the first part, and the City of Pittsburgh of the second part;

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh by virtue of an ordinance approved the 19th day of May, 1892, has advertised for proposals for the sale to said city of real estate to be used for the relief and employment of the poor;

NOW THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH, That in consideration of the premises, and in pursuance to the terms of said ordinance, the said Henrietta Campbell, for herself, her heirs and assigns, does hereby give, grant, bargain and sell to the said City of Pittsburgh, the right, option and privilege of purchasing within sixty days from the date of opening and reading the proposal according to the terms of said ordinance.

All that certain tract of land situate in Shaler Township, Allegheny County, Pa., containing 108½ acres (and being particularly set out and described by metes and bounds in the schedule hereto attached and made a part of this contract, for the price or sum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.) per acre. Said party of the first part will furnish a deed in fee simple with general warranty clear of all incumbrances.

Said tract of land is readily accessible by railroad, being situated at Elfinwild Station on the Pittsburgh & Western Railroad, nine miles from City Hall of Pittsburgh, and there is now a railroad siding at said place. In addition to the railroad facilities, there is the Allegheny and Butler Plank Road which forms a part of the eastern boundary of said farm.

Said farm has ample water facilities thereon for supplying all buildings, and for all purposes for keeping and maintaining the pool of said city. Pine creek is contiguous to this tract, and a large branch of said creek runs east and west through said farm. Besides this there are a number of large springs in different parts. A portion of the tract is of sufficient elevation to provide for a suitable and proper reservoir or basin for all water supply and distribution.

Natural gas is abundant; there is at the present time a large gas well within 20 feet of the western boundary with a pressure of 80 pounds. There are four gas lines from two to ten inches in diameter within easy reach. The tract is free from oil or gas leases.

The land is underlaid with coal of good quality. The land is in a good state of cultivation, and has an excellent fruit orchard. There is erected on this tract a good house, a large first class barn and other outbuildings.

This farm has never before been offered to the city, and the said party of the first part is the absolute owner of the same, and can make a good title for the same to said city.

MR. E. S. MORROW,
Controller, City of Pittsburgh, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—As per advertisement in the newspapers in regard to farm for poor purposes, I beg leave to offer for consideration the following farm located on the West Penn. R. R., in Harrison Township, Allegheny County, adjoining the town of Natrona, Pa.

It is known as the Jamison farm, embraces 150 acres, more or less, is underlaid with a 3-foot vein of good coal, with openings already made to it. Has an abundance of excellent stone suitable for building purposes, with quarry already opened. Has a bountiful supply of good, never-failing springs, one of which alone would supply all the water needed for a very large establishment.

While it has not a river front, there is but a narrow strip between it and the Allegheny river, right-of-way over which can be had very reasonably. The many advantages of this farm for the purpose wanted can best be seen by a visit. Will offer the whole farm with buildings, etc., for one hundred and seventy-five dollars ($175.00) per acre.

Respectfully,

JNO. RALSTON,

For THOS. JAMISON, Owner.

I will, if permitted, have the signature of Thos. Jamison, owner, properly acknowledged and attached to this in less than four days from date.

BUSINESS FROM COMMON COUNCIL.

C. C. No. 412.

June 25th, 1892.

To the Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—There is submitted to you a joint-resolution, authorizing a settlement to be made with Mrs. Isabel C. Sargeant, of various claims held by the city for improvements made.

These claims aggregate the sum of $18,000, and are for streets and sewers. She has offered, through her counsel, to withdraw all exceptions filed, and also her demand for trial by jury, and pay the city the sum of $14,000 cash in sixty days after the approval of such resolution. In consideration of which all claims by the city are to be settled and discontinued.

The offer made, in my judgment, should be accepted.

The litigation is likely to be greatly protracted, and the result of it doubtful. I believe the interests of the city will be subserved by accepting her offer—will save heavy costs, and put into the treasury in a very short time a large sum of money.

I would therefore respectfully ask at your hands the adoption of the resolution.

I am, with great respect,

Yours truly,

WILLIAM C. MORELAND,
City Attorney.

Which was read and received.

C. C. No. 413.

Joint-resolution of the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, authorizing the compromise and settlement of assessments of benefits against various properties of Isabel C. Sargeant for improvements of Negley and Stanton avenues, and sewers on Stanton and Negley avenues and Hights Run.

WHEREAS, there is in litigation between the City of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Isabel C. Sargeant, assessments against properties of Mrs. S. J. Sargeant, otherwise Mrs. Isabel C. Sargeant for the improvement of Negley avenue and sewers on Stanton and Negley avenues and Hights Run. And whereas, there also exists a claim of said City against properties now of the same person (and some of which may be assessed therefor in some other name) for the improvement of Stanton avenue, claimed to have been made under the Penn Avenue Act, which is doubtful, which claims or assessments (including Stanton avenue compromise) amount to $18,000. And whereas, there are many doubtful and intricate questions involved in the matters in dispute involving claims on the part of said Isabel C. Sargeant for damages for taking her property. And whereas, the attorney for said City, and the attorney for the said Mrs. Sargeant believe it beneficial to all parties—the City consenting to the same—to compromise all of said cases by the payment to said City of the sum of $14,000.

Therefore, resolved, That W. C. Moreland, Esq., City Attorney, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to settle and discontinue all suits and actions against said Mrs. Sargeant and her properties, and satisfy all liens and incumbrances touching the same upon the payment of the sum of $14,000 within sixty days from the approval by the Mayor of this joint-resolution.

Resolved, That a Committee of three (two from Common and one from Select Councils) be appointed to confer with the Superintendent of said Railway Company, and to take such action as may be necessary to secure the erection and maintenance of safety gates at said crossing.

Which was read and passed.

C. C. To the Select and Common Councils :

GENTLEMEN:—That the bills which have been certified to me by the Chiefs of the several Departments for labor and materials furnished the city under contract approved by Councils may be paid, I respectfully ask that you pass the accompanying resolution ordering warrants in payment of said accounts.

While I still think that the contracts themselves should be passed upon by the Mayor, like other business from your bodies, Councils nevertheless have power to approve payment of a claim by a three-fourths vote where there is lack of other provision for payment.

Very Respectfully,

E. S. MORROW.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—As Chief of the Department of Public Safety, under and by virtue of an ordinance passed by your honorable bodies, I would respectfully represent that the Department of Public Safety has leased from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for use of the Bureau or Police, two small brick houses, situate at the corner of Cherry and Oak alleys, diagonally across from the Central Police Station. The object in leasing said premises is with a view of having the patrol station situated on Liberty avenue and quarters for the relief squad of the Bureau of Police stationed at this point, and the further purpose of having said patrol station, now situated on Liberty avenue, vacated by the Bureau of Police in order that a chemical engine for use in the Bureau of Fire may be placed therein.

I would further report to your honorable bodies that this lease is a necessity and a very desirable one for the Bureau of Police, and can be secured at a rental of ten dollars per month for the entire premises. This is an exceedingly low rent, and as the lease is a very advantageous one, I would respectfully ask your honorable bodies to pass a resolution authorizing said lease, and we will ever pray.

Respectfully,

No. 449.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
PITTSBURGH, PA., September 12, 1892. }

To the President and Members of Select Council:

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to return to your honorable body, without my approval, the following resolutions and Articles of Agreement, to wit:—

FIRST. A resolution (S. C. No. 338) binding the City to purchase from Edward M. Bigelow, Chief of the Department of Public Works, a piece of property, about five acres, adjoining the Highland Park, and known as the Fite property, for the sum of sixty-five thousand ($65,000) dollars.

SECOND. Articles of Agreement (S. C. No. 339) by and between William Flinn and Edward M. Bigelow, Chief of the Department of Public Works, together with accompanying resolutions, binding the City to purchase from the said William Flinn fourteen acres, more or less, of land adjoining the Highland Park at the price of $7,534.16 per acre, or for the total sum of about $105,500.00.

THIRD. Articles of Agreement (S. C. No. 337) by and between Charles Lockhart, by his attorney in fact, James H. Lockhart, of the first part, and Edward M. Bigelow, Chief of the Department of Public Works, of the second part, binding the City to purchase from the said Charles Lockhart three pieces or tracts of land adjoining or contiguous to Highland Park, and embracing about twenty-seven and a half acres, at the price of $2,538.21 per acre, or for the sum total of about $70,326.00.

These contracts contemplate the purchase of about forty-eight acres of additional land for Highland Park at an aggregate expense of two hundred and forty-one thousand ($241,000) dollars.

They are not options, as some persons imagine; they absolutely bind the City to take the property at the price designated.

The resolution authorizes and directs the controller to issue a certificate for a warrant upon the proper appropriation for the amount of the purchase money, upon the approval of the title to said property by the City Attorney. There is no appropriation out of which to pay for this property. Such an expenditure was not contemplated when the appropriations for the present year were made. It is impossible, therefore, to issue a certificate for a warrant for such a purpose upon any existing appropriation. This is well known by all the parties concerned. It is admitted the money cannot be paid now. The present owners of the property are willing to wait until after the passage of the next appropriation ordinance which will have to provide an appropriation to meet this indebtedness of $241,000.00.

Why not defer these purchases, then, until your honorable body shall have made the appropriation for the purpose? Under the law the expenditures authorized by the appropriation ordinance are limited to the revenues of the city. Why, then, assume a liability and create an indebtedness in violation of the law? Under extraordinary circumstances, and in some great emergency such action might be excusable, but there is neither necessity nor public demand for the purchase of these properties in this irregular way.

The precedent established by such action is bad. If it is proper to create, at the present time, an indebtedness of $241,000.00 to be provided for in the appropriations of the coming year, it will be just as proper next year to create an indebtedness of a million dollars to be paid out of appropriations of the year thereafter. Even though such a policy were in strict harmony with law, its evil tendency must be apparent to all.

But we have no right whatever, to bind the city to the purchase of property unless the money has been previously appropriated to meet the payments. The piece of land known as the Fite property ought, I believe, to belong to the park, and, while $65,000 seems a very large amount of money for so small a piece of property, I would nevertheless feel disposed to approve its purchase if we had an appropriation for the purpose. It lies at the Highland avenue entrance, and its acquisition for park purposes would improve the drive-way, and add materially to the beauty and value of the park. If it is deemed advisable to buy this property your honorable body can make an appropriation for that purpose the coming year. When the money is in the treasury the purchase can be made in a legal way, if it must be made. I may state very frankly that at this time I am not in favor of the purchase of the other properties referred to in this communication.

Highland Park contains at present, I believe, about two hundred and fifty acres, and is in my judgement abundantly large to meet all the requirements for the next ten years or more. If there is a settled determination on the part of your honorable body to buy additional park property, I am strongly inclined to the opinion that the wants and demands of the South Side people are entitled to consideration. They have paid their full proportion of the expense attending the improvement and purchase of park properties which are, at least, in a measure inaccessible to them. If we must have additional land for park purposes the interest and convenience of the South Side citizens should, therefore, determine its location.

We are informed, however, that both Schenley and Highland Parks are to be greatly enlarged. Some enthusiastic individuals declare that the former shall extend to Murray avenue and the latter to Bryant street. The consummation of these magnificent projects means the purchase of four or five hundred acres of land at an expense of at least two millions of dollars. If such purchases are seriously contemplated the whole subject of acquiring park property should be taken up systematically and submitted to the people in the form of a proposition for the issue of bonds with which to meet the expense.

Such a course would give the people an opportunity of being heard regarding extensive purchases of this character. If approved by them the consequent indebtedness would be distributed over a series of years and the acquisition of park property finally adjusted for all time to come.

Additional park property will necessitate additional appropriations for its improvement and these expenditures together with the purchase money will either increase the tax levy or curtail the necessary expenses of the municipality in other important matters.

It should be borne in mind just here that the city is annually spending large amounts of money in the payment of rent for leased property for the use of fire and police bureaus, and this too upon the plea that we are not in financial condition at the present time to justify the purchase of the property required.

This very year the Department of Public Safety is reconstructing buildings upon leased property for a Central Station and an Engine House at an expense to the city of not less than fifty thousand dollars. As is well known, only a few months before abandoning the rented Station House in Diamond alley the sum of four or five thousand dollars was expended in improvements upon it.

If your honorable body desires to purchase property, would it not be well to purchase it for these very important purposes and thus relieve the City of the very considerable expense attending the payment of rent, and at the same time avoid the necessity of making expensive and valuable improvements on property which belongs to private individuals?

I may be permitted to state in this connection that I am in favor of parks. I consider them an incalculable blessing to the people of a large and densely populated city. I believe too, that in this city we should have several parks, but I am not in sympathy with the idea that every park should embrace a large area of land. One park of considerable extent is essential, in order that ample drive-ways may be provided for the accommodation and enjoyment of those who have vehicles and wish to drive. For this purpose Schenley Park answers every demand. It is just as accessible to the people of East End as it is to people of the old portion of the city or of the South Side.

Those, therefore, who wish to drive can find no more delightful place for such recreation than Schenley Park. But the great mass of our people do not drive. When they visit the park they go on foot or patronize the street cars. When they reach the grounds they have neither time nor disposition to travel over three or four hundred acres of park property. They want shade, they want rest.

I believe, therefore, in locating parks as near the people as possible. A small park convenient to the people of a given locality is much more desirable, much more beneficial, than a five hundred-acre park seven or eight miles distant.

I am unable at the present time to see any necessity for two large parks in this city. In the years to come Schenley will be the great central park of Pittsburgh. If it is not large enough it can be made larger after awhile.

But the interests of the whole people will not in my judgement be subserved by large additions to Highland Park. It is at the extreme eastern limit of the city and is far removed from the great mass of working people who constitute the very large proportion of our population, and who need, more than all others, the advantages, enjoyments and recreation which parks afford.

I must not be understood as opposing Highland Park, because I am not. It serves a grand purpose, but I believe it to be sufficiently large to meet all the requirements of those who can with any degree of convenience enjoy its advantages.

I do not consider the present or the immediate future an opportune time for large expenditures in park purchases, but if such purchases must be made I would earnestly suggest that your honorable body consider the advisability of providing a pleasure-ground somewhere on the South Side, before investing almost two hundred and fifty thousand dollars in the manner proposed by the accompanying contracts.

Respectfully yours,

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
PITTSBURGH, PA., October 31, 1892. }

To the President and Members of Select Council.

GENTLEMEN:—I respectfully return to your honorable body without my approval S. C. Bill No. 398. "An Ordinance granting to the Bellefield Street Railway Company, its successors, lessees and assigns the right to enter upon, use and occupy a certain street, avenue and highway for the purpose of its railway, and to lease its franchises and property or either."

This ordinance confers upon the Bellefield Street Railway Company, which is a branch of the Duquesne Traction Company, the right to construct a double track railway on Centre avenue, from Neville street to Herron avenue.

On the same day that this measure was presented to Council, the Central Passenger Railway Company introduced an ordinance asking for the privilege of extending its railway to the East End by way of Center avenue.

Both ordinances were on the same day referred by your honorable body to the Committee on Corporations. This one was promptly considered by the committee, returned with a favorable recommendation, and passed by Councils. On the other, no action has yet been taken by your committee. The committee has not returned it to your honorable body. You have not had the opportunity of comparing the two ordinances and of determining which is the more beneficial to the general public.

I trust you will pardon me for discussing a measure not officially before me, but I cannot present my objections to this ordinance in a clear and satisfactory manner without making some reference to the ordinance of the Central Passenger Railway Company proposing to give the city another continuous railway to East Liberty.

Both these franchises cannot be granted. The one necessarily excludes the other. Which, then, will be the more advantageous to the city? Which, will be the more useful to our people? These are questions which it devolves upon us to answer.

I believe another through line of railway to East Liberty is needed now, and will become an absolute necessity in the immediate future.

Any citizen who daily travels to and from the East End knows by experience and observation that every evening one-half the people who patronize the Fifth avenue and Duquesne roads are compelled to stand in crowded cars on their way to their homes.

Another continuous line to the East End would relieve this pressure and enable citizens who pay their fares to enjoy the convenience of seats.

The ordinance of the Central Passenger Railway Company, proposes to supply just such a railway, thus enabling citizens to make the complete trip either way, between Wood street and Penn avenue on payment of one fare.

Surely such a road would be infinitely more useful to the general public than the mere fragment of a railway contemplated by this ordinance.

The one would be a public benefit, the other would be a permanent obstruction midway in a great thoroughfare to prevent for all time the construction of a competing road.

Let us suppose this Bellefield railway built. A resident of Herron Hill desires to come into the city. He enters a car, pays his fare, rides down the hill to Herron avenue and is dumped off. He then takes passage on the Central Passenger Road, pays another fare and continues on his way to the city. The citizen is put to the expense of paying two fares, and suffers, besides, the inconvenience of changing cars, simply because he is compelled to patronize two different and opposing roads.

Such an arrangement is certainly not in the interest of the people for whose convenience and accommodation railways are supposed to be built.

We are told, however, that the resident of Herron Hill can ride the other way on the Bellefield road to Neville street, thence by Craig street road to Fifth avenue, where he can be transferred to the Fifth avenue road and thus reach the city by the payment of one fare.

But would not this be a circuitous route by which to get to the business center of the city? Would not the time consumed in making the trip be more than double that required by the shorter and more direct route by way of Center avenue?

If "time is money," should not time be considered an important element in providing facilities for carrying citizens to and from their homes?

The Central Passenger Railway Company, I am informed, already has by express agreement from the Duquesne Traction Company, the privilege of using the tracks of the Craig Street Railway Company on Center avenue eastwardly a distance of about a mile to Negley avenue.

The construction of five-sixths of a mile of road from Herron avenue to Neville street, and of 3500 feet eastwardly on Center avenue from Negley avenue would, therefore, give the said Central Passenger Railway Company a continuous line of road from Wood street to Liberty Hall.

Travel, on the cable and electric roads, to and from the East End is increasing every day, and it will only be a very short time until additional facilities will be required to carry the immense number of people who will be located in that part of our city.

Is it wise, then, to give up a part of Centre avenue to a company that does not propose to give the city a through road to the East End and by so doing establish an insuperable barrier against the consummation of such a project in the future?

As between these two companies asking permission to occupy Center avenue, I firmly believe the interests of the public will be best subserved by granting the franchise to the company that promises facilities for through travel.

If my position be correct, then, it becomes our duty as the representatives of the people to refuse the rights and privileges asked for by the Bellefield Company in this ordinance.

I have other objections to the ordinance. Recently, as you know, Center avenue has, at the expense of the abutting property owners, been paved with block stone.

The ordinance should therefore, contain a provision requiring the company to pay for the materials used in paving the seven or eight thousand square yards of the street which will be occupied by the railway, should the ordinance be finally passed, and which, under the provisions of the general ordinance the company will be required to pave.

The ordinance passed a short time ago granting the Citizens Passenger Railway Company privilege to construct a railway on Frankstown avenue, recently paved by the property owners, contains such a provision and there is no good reason why a similar requirement should not be embodied in this measure.

I may say here that the parties interested in the Bellefield Railway Company tell me that the omission of this provision was an oversight, and that they are not only satisfied, but desire, to have it inserted in the ordinance. The cost of the material referred to will amount, approximately, to $12,000 or $13,000.

The ordinance should contain also a provision requiring that the railway shall be constructed within a specified time.

I know the Act of Assembly says that work shall, in good faith, be commenced within one year and completed within two years from the approval of the ordinance, but this provision is simply directory.

It is something like the Legislative enactment that directs our appropriations to be made during the month of January or February in each year, and yet we know our appropriation ordinance is never passed until late in the month of March.

In conclusion permit me to state that cable and electric roads have been a great benefit to our city, and this fact constitutes an unanswerable argument why we should not erect breastworks to prevent other companies from building roads and competing for the patronage of the public, especially in cases where such roads are an acknowledged necessity.

Respectfully Yours,

H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor.

Which was read and received.

Mr. Robertson, by leave, presented

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—In preparing estimates for the annual appropriation for the Bureau of Police, the late Superintendent thereof, Gamble Weir, made an error in the number of patrolmen, estimating the same at 248 men, where as the law and ordinance allows 251, thereby omitting the salary of three patrolmen at $912.50 each per annum, making a shortage in said appropriation of $2,737.50.

After consultation with the City Controller and Mayor, I am advised to petition your honorable bodies to make a transfer of $2,737.50 from the Contingent Fund of the City of Pittsburgh to the Bureau of Police, to provide for the paying of these patrolmen and correcting said error, and I will ever pray.

The consideration therein being the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000). Also, articles of agreement from John Siebert to the City of Pittsburgh, for a piece of land in the Twenty-eighth ward, a full description of said lot being contained in said articles of agreement and hereto attached, for the sum of seven thousand dollars, ($7,000).

Both of these agreements are options on said pieces of land, expiring April 1, 1893, and, upon a full and complete investigation, I am satisfied that the price therein asked is reasonable, and that the land therein described is fully worth the sum of money specified in said agreement. That the said lots are well adapted for location of police station on the South Side, being centrally located, affording a good and suitable site for police station, being sufficiently large for the wants of that section of the city for many years to come.

I further certify that the old police station in the Twenty-eighth ward is wholly inadequate for police purposes, and is in a dilapidated and dangerous condition, making it absolutely necessary that the city secure a suitable piece of land and erect thereon a station house in that section of the city.

I would, therefore, ask your honorable bodies to ratify by joint resolution hereto attached, this agreement, so that these options can be made valid and binding until the first day of April, A. D. 1893.

Respectfully yours,

J. O. BROWN,

Chief Department of Public Safety.

The Chair presented

No. 581.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
PITTSBURGH, PA., November 14, 1892. }

To the President and Members of Select Council:

GENTLEMEN:—Permit me to return to your honorable body without my approval the accompanying resolution authorizing and directing the Mayor to sign for and on behalf of the City of Pittsburgh, a petition for the widening and opening of Diamond street, between Smithfield street and Liberty avenue.

This resolution evidently assumes that there is, somewhere, a petition for the widening and opening of Diamond street between the points designated.

But where is this petition? Who has possession of it? Have Councils any official knowledge of such a document? Has it been presented to your honorable body? If so, what is the exact nature of the petition? It has not been officially presented to me nor do I believe it has been officially presented to your honorable body.

How then am I to know just what petition I am directed to sign?

Your clerk has, in his official capacity, kindly presented to me your resolution, but who is to submit the petition itself, and by what official evidence am I to determine it to be the instrument by which you would have me bind the city?

I have been informed, but not officially, of a petition for the widening and opening of Diamond street, between Smithfield street and the west side of the Diamond market buildings, but this cannot be the document referred to by the resolution, because the resolution says, "A petition for the widening and opening of Diamond street, between Smithfield street and Liberty avenue."

It would be exceedingly unfortunate if the Mayor should make the unhappy mistake of signing some petition not contemplated by the resolution. To avoid any such contingency, would it not be well to have the petition you would have the Mayor sign accompany your resolution of instruction? Again, the petition which has been, unofficially, brought to my notice sets forth that the owners of property abutting on Diamond street respectfully petition your honorable bodies for the passage of an ordinance authorizing the widening and opening of said street, &c.

If the Mayor is to sign on behalf of the city for the widening and opening of this street, there must be property somewhere, under the ownership of the city, abutting on the street. If so, where is this property?

I am aware that the city has control of the two market houses and the ground occupied by them, but I am unable to discover that this property in any manner abuts on Diamond street.

If the property does not abut on Diamond street, then why should the Mayor be instructed to sign on behalf of the city for the widening of said street? The widening of Diamond street and the opening of a fifty-foot street through the center of the two market houses are two different and distinct things. The one affects directly the owners of abutting property and should be determined by them. The other is a matter which directly interests the city and should be determined by it.

If the city desires to cut a street through these buildings, and has the power to do so, it is certainly not necessary for it to petition itself for the passage of an ordinance authorizing said work to be done.

Such action would seem just about as absurd as that of an individual petitioning himself for a road through property over which he had exclusive control.

The legislative power of the city is vested in Councils, and while they may possibly have the right to legislate a street through the market houses, I have no cognizance of any law which authorizes them to instruct the chief executive to petition them for and on behalf of the city to execute such work.

Again, should I sign a petition as directed by this resolution I might by so doing place myself in the anomalous position of asking your honorable bodies to pass an ordinance to which the best interests of the city might ultimately require me to interpose objections.

I will not, therefore, permit myself to be placed in a position that will in any manner interfere with the free and unrestricted exercise of my own judgment when the time comes for me to pass upon the measure which this resolution would have me petition your honorable bodies to enact.

Furthermore, I am not entirely satisfied that Councils have the legal right to open a street through the market houses in the Diamond square; but if they have the power to do so, before petitioning for, or committing myself to, such an improvement, I should want to be satisfied that it can be made without serious detriment to the market facilities of the city.

If the majority in number and interest of abutting property owners petition for the widening of Diamond street proper, I have no objection to the improvement, provided it can be made without placing the damages on the city.

But I am opposed to what appears to me a deliberate attempt to invoke the aid of the city in legalizing a petition that does not contain the signatures of a majority in number and interest of the bona fide property owners on the line of the street.

If the petition meets the requirements of the law the signature of the Mayor on behalf of the city is not needed. If the majority withhold their signatures, their rights should not be overridden by the method proposed by this resolution.

Respectfully submitted,

H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1892.

HON. H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor City of Pittsburgh.

DEAR SIR:—In compliance with the Charter Ordinance I herewith submit to your estimated appropriation for the Department of Public Safety for the year 1893, together with detailed and itemized statement of the expenses of the Department for the last twelve months.

During the year the number of employes in my Department was increased by Ordinance of Councils, 104, to wit: 50 additional policemen; 50 additional firemen and 4 sanitary police, thus largely increasing the salary roll.

I have spent much time and thought upon preparing these estimates based upon the actual figures for last year, and in making the same have endeavored to keep before me a wise and economical expenditure of money, so far as consistent with reliable, efficient and satisfactory service to the city.

Respectfully submitted,

J. O. BROWN,

Chief Department of Public Safety.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1892.

HON. H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor City of Pittsburgh.

DEAR SIR:—Complying with the Acts of Assembly and Ordinances of Councils, I have the pleasure of presenting to you the report of the expenditures and receipts of the Department of Public Works for the ten months ending November 30th, 1892.

If desired, we will cheerfully furnish you with detailed accounts of items shown, with pay rolls and vouchers for the same, together with any other information.

The amounts remaining to the credit of the several Bureaus in the Department, will with careful management, meet all demands.

In making the estimates for the several Bureaus for the incoming year I have endeavored to keep them down to the lowest possible limit, knowing that with experience, careful management, new and improved machinery, we will be able to successfully meet all the requirements for the next year.

In the Bureau of Engineering and Surveys I have asked for fifty-eight thousand dollars, being an increase of twenty thousand dollars over the appropriation of 1892, that being the amount it will cost to properly conduct the Bureau, owing to the great amount of work to be performed.

The amount asked for to run the entire Department for the year 1893 is one hundred and seventy-seven thousand, three hundred and seventy-six dollars and sixty cents ($177,376.60) less than the appropriation for the year 1892.

Very respectfully,

E. M. BIGELOW,
Chief Department of Public Works.

PITTSBURGH, December 28, 1892.

HON. H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor City of Pittsburgh.

I herewith present my report as Chief of the Department of Charities for the year ending
November 30th, 1892.

During this period the Department disbursed
$87,922.46 and received from various sources
$1,752.39, leaving a net disbursement of $83,170.07.

In the Out-door Relief branch, "during the above mentioned period," the Department furnished various persons 27,325 bushels of coal, 1,913 pairs of shoes, 94 burial orders and 624 railroad tickets to different parts of the country. The District Physicians attended 1,198 charity cases, compounding and prescribing for same 5,429 prescriptions, receiving 2,468 office calls, and making in connection with above 3,195 home visits.

I estimate the necessities of the Department
"as per annexed statement" for the fiscal year, commencing February 1st, 1893, at one hundred and seventy thousand dollars ($170, 000). Ninety thousand dollars ($90,000) for the running expenses of the Department, and eighty dollars ($80,000) for the completion of all buildings, etc., at New Poor Farm.

Respectfully submitted,

R. C. ELLIOT,

Chief Department of Charities.

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1893. }

HON. H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh.

DEAR SIR,—I have the honor to submit herewith a statement showing the estimated expenditures of the Central Board of Education for the fiscal year commencing February 1, 1893.

The total amount of expenses is estimated at five hundred two thousand eight hundred dollars ($502,800). Of this sum four hundred sixty thousand dollars ($460,000) will be required to pay teachers' salaries. The increase in this item of expense ($40,000) over the amount appropriated last year is due to the increase in our attendance, which made the employment of a large number of additional teachers necessary and an advance in salaries paid teachers.

The balance of the appropriation, forty-two thousand eight hundred dollars ($42,800), will be required to meet the expense of the High and Normal Schools and other expenses of the Board as given in the detailed statement submitted.

The Central Board will cheerfully furnish any information you may desire to enable you to present to the citizens a statement as to the disposition of the funds entrusted to its care.

Yours respectfully,

CHAS. REISFAR, JR.,

Secretary.

Board of Assessors—Cont'd.

GEORGE BOOTH, Esq.,

City Clerk.

DEAR SIR:—I am in receipt of copy of resolutions passed by councils of Pittsburgh relative to pending bill for bridge at Twenty-second and Brady streets. I will have action "suspended until such time as the public authorities of Pittsburgh may be heard thereon," as requested by said resolution.

Yours truly,

JOHN DALZELL.

Which was read and received.

Also,

No. 704. Report of the Department of Public Safety for the month of December, 1892.

Referred to the Auditing Committee.

Also,

No. 705.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Jan. 28, 1893.

To the Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—During the past fiscal year the Bureau of Health had extraordinary and unlooked for expenses. First, for eight months during the year the city was afflicted with smallpox, and for that length of time the Municipal hospital was occupied by one or more smallpox patients, greatly increasing the hospital account for nurses and maintenance, and very greatly increasing our vaccination account, running the same several thousand dollars over the amount estimated for that purpose in last year's appropriation.

Second, during the time the city was threatened with cholera the garbage furnace was worked and taxed to its utmost capacity, and the fuel account increased something like $800 over what was used in ordinary condition of affairs. For these causes there is a deficiency in the Bureau of Health of $3,000, and under advice and direction of the City Controller, would respectfully ask for a resolution transferring that amount of money from the Bureau of Fire to the Bureau of Health.

There is, also, a deficiency in the Bureau of Police, caused, as your honors will remember I stated in a petition some weeks ago, by a clerical error of $2737.50 in making up the estimates for salaries last year. Your honors passed a resolution transferring that amount from the contingent fund, but the condition of said contingent fund was such that only $1,737.50 could be transferred.

In the building of the Central Police Station on Oak alley there was an appropriation of something like $1,200 for the building account, while, as a fact, owing to the expensive iron work in the cells, they alone cost something like $9,000, causing a shortage in this account of $1,500.

I would, therefore, respectfully ask that you pass a resolution transferring, as per the advice and approval of the City Controller, the sum of $3,500 from the Bureau of Fire to the Bureau of Police. These transfers will enable these bureaus to fully and completely liquidate any indebtedness against them, and there is a sufficient balance unused in the Bureau of Fire for these purposes.

And I will ever pray.

Respectfully yours,

J. O. BROWN,

Chief Department of Public Safety.

Which was read and received.

Also,

No. 706.

Resolved, That the City Controller be and he is hereby authorized and directed to make the following transfers of appropriations in the Department of Public Safety, to-wit:

Three thousand (3,000) dollars from Appropriation No. 4, Bureau of Fire, to Appropriation No. 7, Bureau of Health.

Three thousand five hundred (3,500) dollars from Appropriation No. 4, Bureau of Fire, to Appropriation No. 5, Bureau of Police.

Which was read.

And the rule having been suspended the resolution was read a second and third time and finally passed.

Mr. Robertson presented, from the Committee on Corporations with affirmative recommendation,

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY, }
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 1, 1893. }

To Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN—The records, reports and financial statement for the fiscal year ending January 31, 1893, are herewith submitted to you and constitute my fifth annual report as Chief of the Department of Public Safety.

I have endeavored to have the Superintendents of the various bureaus make full and specific statements of all matters pertaining to their respective bureaus, and would respectfully ask your attention to the clear and comprehensive outline embraced within the scope of these various reports and exhibits.

I desire, however, to call your special attention to the Bureau of Health. The most important question with which that bureau had to deal during the past year was preparing for the advent of cholera which imminently threatened the country.

Upon receipt of news of the danger additional active measures were at once resorted to. House to house inspections were made, prompt abatement of nuisances was insisted upon, and the removal or correction of conditions which might have a tendency to propagate the disease were effected. In a majority of instances this was willingly done, or at least required but little persuasion, but in a few it became necessary to invoke the aid of the law by prosecution.

At my request your honorable bodies set aside a special appropriation of seven thousand dollars for use in the emergency. From this amount was paid the services of special inspectors performing duty on railroad trains; of additional sanitary police; the cost of erection of an emergency hospital; the establishment of a bacteriological laboratory; the employment of several steamboats in removing accumulated filth from the mouths of the main sewers; the purchase, distribution and application of disinfectants, and the adoption and carrying out of many other important sanitary measures.

In addition thereto was the printing and distribution of fifty thousand circulars prepared by the State Board of Health relative to the disease, its care, and the preventive measures necessary to be adopted and applied.

After a careful review of the situation as it then existed, I feel confident that had cholera appeared here, we would have been in quite as good condition to combat it as most other cities.

That the disease did not gain a foothold in this country was probably due more to good luck than good management. After the experience of the past year, and resulting from that experience, there certainly is a great and growing distrust regarding the efficiency of State and municipal maritime quarantine methods and measures as they then existed and as they now exist.

Congress is at present considering the question of providing for and establishing national quarantine to replace, National Legislation. or at least to supplement that of the States. It is certainly to be hoped that such measures will be adopted by that body, and effectively executed, as will prevent the introduction of the disease. In view of these facts I would respectfully recommend the adoption, by your honorable bodies, of a strong resolution or memorial asking Congress to pass such an Act relating to this subject as will insure immunity from the introduction of this dread disease from other countries.

But while the National and State authorities may do all that is possible to ward off this calamity, yet a very grave responsibility rests upon the local and municipal authorities, and upon the public, collectively and individually, as well.

By far the most important and far reaching problem connected with our local sanitation is the proper and prompt collection, removal and disposal of kitchen garbage and offal. No other question has such a direct bearing and influence upon the health of our city as this one; and apparently no other subject is so little considered or understood.

At present, as in the past, the collection and removal of this material, when removed at all, is left in the hands of a few persons, a majority of whom are irresponsible, and, as a consequence, its removal is conducted in a slipshod and generally unsatisfactory manner. It is true that during the season when its effects are most dangerous, much of this material is carried to and destroyed in the single garbage furnace owned and operated by the city, but at least four additional furnaces of a similar character are necessary to dispose of all this refuse.

The greater portion of it is still deposited in the rivers, or on their shores, and on vacant lots and dumps, where it remains a constant menace to life and health. This should not be so. With the great danger of the coming season staring us in the face, something should be done, something must be done to remove these plague spots which exist at almost every householder's door.

Systematic and perfect methods of collection, removal and disposal are the only safeguards.

This subject has been brought to the attention of your honorable bodies in several different forms during the past ten or fifteen years by means of proposed ordinances, reports and special papers, but nothing practical has been accomplished.

A short time since an ordinance on this subject was very carefully prepared and submitted to you for adoption, but up to time no action has been taken.

I embrace this opportunity of directing special attention to this all-important matter and urge upon you the necessity for prompt and speedy action.

Upon you, gentlemen of Councils, rests grave responsibility. With you I leave it.

The operations of the Bureau of Fire are set forth in the report of Miles S. Hungerford, Chief Engineer, Bureau of Fire. attached, and shows a gratifying report for the year. The fire losses were unusually low, the operations of the bureau highly satisfactory.

The order and peace of the city have been good and the record of robberies and crimes exceedingly low, as reported by the Bureau of Police.

The complete report of the Superintendent of the Bureau of Police.

In closing my report I desire to thank your honorable bodies for the hearty cooperation and endorsement I have received.

Conclusion. I invoke a continuance of your assistance for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted.

C. C. No. 1029.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
PITTSBURGH, PA., March 6th, 1893. }

To the Honorable the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh.

SIRs—At the urgent demand of a large number of worthy citizens, on November 30, 1892, by a communication of that date, in the exercise of the supervisory power of the Mayor, I directed the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, by his police, "to enforce the law against all houses of ill-repute in the city." A copy of the letter conveying my directions on this subject, together with the enclosure transmitted herewith, is herewith attached, marked "A."

Immediately upon receiving this direction the Chief of the Department of Public Safety issued an order to the Superintendent of Police commanding him "to close and keep closed all houses of ill-repute in this city." A copy of the order referred to is herewith attached, marked "B."

He at the same time issued to his subordinates a verbal order which he communicated to me in person, to notify the keepers of such houses to have their inmates out and their houses closed by 10 o'clock in the evening of the day on which his orders were issued.

In response to these orders from the Chief, the Superintendent of Police instructed his inspectors and detectives to close all such houses on the same day. This summary action on the part of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety was wholly without warrant of law, and was necessarily contrary to my direction, which simply called upon him "to enforce the law against all houses of ill-repute in the city."

On December 1, 1892, in a public address to a large number of the women who had thus been summarily thrown into the streets, I denounced this cruel and illegal action of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, as it deserved. Thereupon the Chief, on December 2, 1892, issued an order to the Superintendent of Police not "to eject or molest any of the inmates of the houses of prostitution until his Honor (the Mayor) shall indicate the date at which he desires his order of November 30th to go into execution." This latter order has never been officially communicated to me, but I herewith enclose a copy, marked "C," taken from the newspapers of the city.

This order having been called to my attention by its publication in the newspapers, I addressed a letter to the Chief, under date of December 3, 1892, again commanding him to enforce the law. A copy of this letter is herewith enclosed, marked "D."

To this the Chief replied in a communication, under date of December 6, 1892, which I herewith submit, marked "E."

I replied to this communication under date of December 7, 1892, again urging upon the Chief the performance of his duty in the enforcement of the law. A copy of my reply I enclose herewith, marked "F." To this I have never received any response by word or act.

The Chief's order to the Superintendent of Police, of December 2, 1892, above referred to, directing him not "to eject or molest any of the inmates of the houses of prostitution" still remains in force, so far as I have been informed, and under its protection these houses openly, notoriously and defiantly carry on their infamous traffic, with the full knowledge and consent of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, the police of the city being expressly and publicly commanded not to molest them.

I have requested the City Attorney for his opinion as to my power to compel compliance by the Chief of the Department of Public Safety with my directions. I enclose herewith a copy of the opinion, marked "G." Upon an examination of it you will find that I am advised I have no power to compel obedience to my directions, and that it would seem to be my duty to submit the matter to Councils. That the act of June 14, 1887, in relation to the government of cities of the second class, under which our present city government is organized, should give the Mayor the power to direct public officers in the line of their duty under the law and the ordinances and yet purposely withhold from him any power or means by which to compel obedience to such directions, is an anomaly in the art of government, but it is unquestionably true.

By Section 26, of the Act of April 6, 1897, it is provided that

"Any officer or agent appointed by or under the authority of City Councils may be removed from office by a concurrent vote of the majority of all the members of each Council."

In view of this clear power vested in you, and which is the only power to compel decency of conduct in the Chief of departments, I beg you seriously to consider the conduct of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, as above detailed.

The Commonwealth has enacted:

"If any person shall keep and maintain a common lawdy house or place for the practice of fornication, or shall knowingly let or demise a house or part thereof to be so occupied, he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars and to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years." Purdon's Digest, 413.

In addition to this law of the Commonwealth for the suppression of such evil, your honorable bodies, in pursuance of power expressly given, have long since enacted an ordinance empowering the police to arrest the keepers of houses of ill-fame and all persons found therein, and providing for their proper trial and punishment before the magistrates of the city. This ordinance, of course, only empowers arrests to be made in a legal manner, and, in the opinion of the City Attorney, herewith submitted, is mandatory, imposing an imperative duty upon the police department to execute its provisions.

By the conduct of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, above shown, that which the law-making power of the State has declared to be a crime is now protected and defended by the sworn guardians of the law; the imperative duty imposed upon the police by the ordinance of your honorable bodies is set at naught and deliberately repudiated; and the directions of the Mayor, given in pursuance of lawful authority, are publicly defied. The State has declared the keeping of a house of ill-fame a crime. The Chief declares it a necessary evil to be protected, under police surveillance. Your honorable bodies, speaking for the City of Pittsburgh, in pursuance of the law, have commanded the city police to arrest the keeper and the inmates of all such houses. The Chief has commanded the police not to molest them. The law gives the Mayor power to direct the Chief in the line of his duty under the law and the ordinances. The Chief defies the directions and contemptuously refuses any obedience.

This conduct on the part of the Chief is not the result of temper, or of an ill-considered resolution, but is the result of a deliberate and long-formed intention. This is manifest from his so-called "policy," as set forth in his Annual Report to your honorable bodies, under date of February 1, 1890. In that report he says:

"I have no hesitation in saying it (prostitution) is a vice as old as the world, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is probably a police necessity, and one of those conditions of human society that in great centers of population, like that of Pittsburgh, had better be tolerated, regulated and controlled by police surveillance rather than to attempt to crush it out."

His refusal to obey my directions, and his order to the police not to molest this vice, are in pursuance of this deliberately formed policy so long ago adopted.

I need hardly remind you that an officer whose sworn duty it is to execute the law has no right to know any policy but the policy of the law. It is only the supremest presumption in a policeman to erect himself into a censor of the policy so clearly defined by the law and the ordinances that he is sworn to execute, to reverse the policy of the State thus expressed, to abolish the law, and to set up to be a rule unto himself. It is certainly not his function to speculate upon social theories of his own, and to adopt them for the guidance of his conduct, when they are in violent conflict with the law that it is his duty to execute. It is not worth while, therefore, and would be presumptuous, to discuss the merits of the theory adopted by the Chief of the Department of Public Safety for dealing with this vice. His theory, however, is an utter abomination. To only one feature of it I need call your attention. If these houses are to be tolerated the degree of toleration, the subjects of toleration, are left wholly to the will of the Chief. The proprietress who meets his approval can conduct her business in safety; one who meets his disapproval is at once under the condemnation of the law. When the criminal to be tolerated is left to the arbitrary selection of the Chief, the motives governing the selection are secret and cannot be fathomed or exposed. This theory, therefore, can easily be made the convenient cloak for the levying of blackmail by the police department. It may be that a house that pays assessments to further the political ends of the officer in power may do business, and one that refuses such tribute may be suppressed. The price of conducting the infamous traffic may thus be made a corruption fund to debauch the voter and perpetuate the power of the dictator who grants at will the privilege to offend against the law without fear of punishment. Such a result, of course, is the inevitable result of the conduct of an officer who pretends to tolerate, regulate and control by police surveillance a vice that the law denounces as a crime to be punished.

The only security of the community is in the uniform, impartial and vigorous enforcement of the law. When the day comes, if it ever does come, that an executive officer can select, from the catalogue of crimes, such as are to be tolerated, regulated and controlled, in his discretion, and such as are to be prosecuted and punished, the time of absolute and corrupt despotism is at hand. A more impudent assumption of power on the part of a policeman can hardly be imagined than is involved in the publicly declared purpose of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety.

The anchor of popular government is loyalty to the law. Wilful, contemptuous defiance of law and legal authority must necessarily end in anarchy or absolute despotism. Such conduct on the part of the humblest citizen is to be deplored; much more is it to be regretted and resented in one entrusted by the people to enforce the law, and sworn to discharge his duty with fidelity. Such conduct in a public officer, setting forth a most demoralizing example to the community, demands the severest condemnation. It is time now to determine whether or not a policeman can, with impunity, defy a statute expressing the highest moral purpose of the State, the ordinance of Councils, and the lawful directions of his superior officer. If it be so, we can only trust a self-governing people to find a remedy.

I most urgently call upon you to vindicate your own character and the character of our community by promptly punishing the contumacious defiance of all law and legal authority exhibited in the conduct of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety in the subject matter herein referred to.

I urgently move you to exercise your power to remove from office a recreant official, and to direct the City Attorney to co-operate with the District Attorney in securing his indictment and conviction in the Criminal Court.

Yours truly,

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

Mr. Lambie presented

No. 765.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28, 1893.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—I would respectfully present for your favorable consideration the bill of $40 for telephone used in the office of Physician and Registrar of the Bureau of Health. This telephone is very necessary to said bureau. We had smallpox in the Municipal hospital continuously for about eight months last year, and it was important to have direct communication with the physician of the bureau by telephone, and as this contract was not included in our annual advertisement for telephones for the department, I would respectfully ask you to pass a resolution to pay the same. The amount claimed by the telephone company is the same included in our contract for other telephones for like service.

I also present bill of W. J. Gillmore & Co. for payment for disinfectant used by the Bureau of Health during the cholera scare. Mr. Gillmore in making his bid, by an error bid ten cents a gallon for phenyle, whereas the actual wholesale price was $1.10, thus causing a direct loss to Mr. Gillmore for each gallon furnished the city, and in justice he should be reimbursed for one hundred gallons used. His bill of $75 is just and equitable, and I would respectfully ask your honorable bodies to pay the same.

Very respectfully yours,

J. O. BROWN,

Chief Department of Public Safety.

Which was read and received.

Also

No. 766. Resolved, That the City Controller be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his certificates on the Mayor for warrants in favor of the Central District and Printing Telegraph Co. for the sum of sixty dollars ($60) for use of telephone in office of Physician to Bureau of Health for the year 1891-2,

And in favor of W. J. Gilmore & Co. for the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75) for disinfectants for Bureau of Health, and charge the same to Appropriation No. 7, Bureau of Health.

Which was read.

And the rule having been suspended, the resolution was read a second time.

Mr. Lambie moved

To amend the resolution by striking out the words "and in favor of W. J. Gilmore & Co. for the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75) for disinfectants of Bureau of Health."

Which motion prevailed.

And the resolution as amended was read a third time and passed by a two-thirds vote.

Also,

No. 767.

PITTSBURGH, February 28th, 1893.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—Under and by virtue of an Ordinance passed by your honorable bodies and approved by the Mayor, it is incumbent upon the Department of Public Safety to annually license dogs in the city. In compliance therewith I would respectfully ask your honorable bodies to pass a resolution authorizing this department to advertise for four thousand license plates each of Series A and B, the same being different sizes, with a view of having a contract awarded for the same and the plates ready for the issuing of licenses for the year commencing May 1st, 1893.

Very truly yours,

J. O. BROWN,

Chief Department of Public Safety.

Which was read and received.

Also,

No. 768. Resolved, That the Department of Public Safety be and is hereby authorized to advertise for proposals for furnishing said department eight thousand dog license plates (four thousand each of series "A" and "B") for use during the year 1893 and award a contract for same.

Which was read.

And the rule having been suspended the resolution was read a second and third times and finally passed.

Mr. Perry presented

No. 769. Resolved, That the City Controller be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his certificate on the Mayor for a warrant in favor of Howe, Brown & Co. for the sum of forty-six eighty-one hundredths dollars ($46.80) refunding overpaid tax on property in Tenth ward as per exoneration of assessors hereto attached, and charge Appropriation No. 19, Contingent Fund.

Which was read.

And the rule having been suspended the resolution was read a second and third times and finally passed by a two-thirds vote.

Also,

No. 770.

PITTSBURGH, March 13, 1893.

To the Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—I submit herewith resolutions for the payment of the following bills:

Booth & Flinn.....$538 78

Booth & McQuade.....$793 43
For extra work on water pipe lines for Bureau of Water Supply and Distribution.

I would respectfully ask your approval of the same.

Very respectfully,

E. M. BIGELOW,

Chief Department of Public Works.

Which was read and received.

Also,

No. 771. Resolved, That the City Controller be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his certificate on the Mayor, for a warrant in favor of Booth & Flinn for the sum of five hundred thirty-eight dollars and seventy-eight cents ($538.78), for repaving asphalt pavements where excavations were made in repairing water pipes, and charge the same to Appropriation No. 13.

BUSINESS FROM COMMON COUNCIL.

C. C. No. 1079.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
PITTSBURGH, PA., March 13th, 1893.
To the President and Members of Common Council;

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to return to your honorable body without my approval "An Ordinance (Bill No. 1007, C. C.) levying taxes and assessing water rents for the fiscal year beginning February 1st, 1893."

The first section of this Ordinance says: "For the purpose of providing sufficient revenue to meet the ordinary expenses of the city, to pay the interest on outstanding bonds and to discharge all other liabilities now due or which may become payable during the said year 1893, the taxes shall be and are hereby levied and assessed upon all property and other objects of taxation as follows."

This section is not true. The Ordinance does not levy sufficient taxes to meet the expenditures proposed in Bill No. 1006. It is true that the revenues are figured out on paper, but any person at all familiar with the history of past appropriations cannot but know that the visionary and extravagant receipts estimated in this Ordinance will not materialize in the year 1893. With appropriations aggregating $3,000,000 and a tax rate of 12 mills there was a shortage of $515,000 in round numbers at the close of 1892; and yet it is proposed in this Ordinance to provide the revenue necessary to meet an expenditure of $5,292,286.88 in the year 1893 with a tax rate of 11 mills.

That is to say, the appropriations are increased almost $300,000, while the revenue from the city tax is reduced $130,000.

In the first part of this statement there is nothing remarkable. History is simply repeating itself. The expenses are climbing higher and higher. The total appropriations for 1893 are more than $2,000,000 in excess of the appropriations of 1883, or an increase of 62 per cent. In five years, but what is remarkable is the reduction in the revenue from property tax. Not since the organization of our new system of government has there been such a showing. In some cases the millage has been reduced, but under such circumstances the valuations have gone up sufficiently to insure an increase year by year in the revenue from property tax.

It would seem that in this Ordinance a desperate effort had been made to redeem the pledge set forth in a circular to the taxpayers of the city on the eve of the recent election by the distinguished Chairman of the late Republican Campaign Committee.

To fulfil that promise, to reduce the revenues and yet increase the expenditures required astute financiering, and involved an arithmetical principle entirely novel, and which should be incorporated in the text books of our public schools.

If we had a deficiency of $515,000 at the close of 1892, with a property tax of $130,000 in excess of that of the present year, and with appropriations aggregating $300,000 less than the appropriations of the present year, what will the harvest be at the close of 1893?

By inflating the estimated receipts outside of the property tax, it is not a difficult matter to make the revenues appear equal to the proposed expenditures of the city; but will these fanciful figures produce tangible results?

An examination of the Appropriation Ordinance of 1892 shows that the estimated revenues other than those from city tax aggregated the sum of $2,119,802.50. Of this sum there was collected during the year $1,973,424.14, thus leaving a shortage in the estimated receipts from the sources to which I refer of $146,378.36.

In the Ordinance before me the revenues expected from these same sources are fixed at $2,512,286.86. This is an increase of $422,484.36 over the estimates of last year, and exceeds the amount collected during 1892 by $538,862.74.

In order to realize these estimates we shall have to receive just about thirty per cent.

more money during the present year than was collected from the same source in 1892. Is it reasonable to expect this? I do not believe it is.

Should we only collect an amount equal to the sum collected in 1892, we would have a resulting shortage in the estimated revenues from sources referred to of $568,862.74. Should we collect an amount equal to the estimates of last year, which exceeded the sum realized by $146,378.36, we would still have a deficiency of $422,484.36.

Even granting that we shall realize from these estimates $250,000 more than was collected from same sources in 1892, the sum realized will fall short of the estimated revenues just about $320,000.

Add to this at least $330,000 of city tax that will pass into the hands of the Delinquent Tax Collector, and cannot in consequence be made available during the present year, and we have $650,000, or what seems to me will, under this Ordinance, be the deficiency at the close of 1893.

As an illustration of the extent to which the estimated receipts are inflated in this Ordinance, let me refer only to water rents. Last year the estimated revenue from this source was fixed at $640,000. There was collected during the year $605,000, in round numbers, thus leaving a shortage of $35,000.

The present Ordinance places the income from water rents at $770,000, which is an increase of twenty per cent. over the estimate of last year.

To realize this sum will require the collection of $165,000, or twenty-seven per cent. more revenue than was received from water rents in the year 1892. I do not believe this is possible. The growth of the city will justify no such expectation.

I might refer to other items in the Ordinance, but it is unnecessary at this time.

Either the tax rate should be increased two mills or the appropriations should be reduced at least $600,000.

The increase proposed by this Ordinance in the estimated receipts from all sources outside of city tax is greater than the increase in the estimated revenues from same sources for the three years ending February 1st, 1891.

The estimates are excessive. They are not honest. They may be used for the time being to secure large and extravagant appropriations without increasing the tax rate, but the inevitable result will be increased deficiencies and a heavier burden for the taxpayers in 1894.

Respectfully submitted.

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

C. C. 1078.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
PITTSBURGH, PA., March 13th, 1893. }

To the President and Members of Common Council:

GENTLEMEN:—Permit me to return to your honorable body without my approval "An Ordinance (Bill No. 1006, Common Council) making appropriations for the fiscal year beginning February 1st, 1893, and authorizing the expenditures thereof."

Outside of all other considerations there is one section in this ordinance to which I cannot subscribe, and which in itself would prevent my approval of the measure.

Section 9 says:

"The Chiefs of the several departments of the city are hereby authorized and empowered to provide supplies for their respective departments, to advertise for bids and let contracts for the same in the manner now provided by law and the Ordinances of said city, not however exceeding in any case the amounts appropriated for said purpose."

I do not believe this Section should find any place in an appropriation Ordinance. It has reference to a matter entirely foreign to that of making appropriations, and should not be incorporated in this measure. It, moreover, in my judgment, makes the whole bill of doubtful legality, as the Act of Assembly provides that "No bill shall be passed containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title."

If the Chiefs do not already possess authority to provide supplies for their respective departments, some of them have been exercising that power in a very free and unrestricted manner.

While I am in favor of conferring upon the Chiefs of departments the power to provide necessary supplies, I am very decided in the conviction that such power should be controlled and regulated in such a manner as to prevent the extravagant expenditure of public money and confine the purchases to supplies, materials and apparatus expressly authorized by law.

The Ordinance appropriates for the use of the Department of Public Safety the sum of $888,574 75, which is an increase of 27 per cent. over the expenditures of the department for the year ending February 1st, 1892. The Fire Bureau gets $340,399 40 and the Bureau of Police $421,055 00.

I do not say that the salaries paid our firemen and policemen are excessive. I do not believe they are. I believe that every efficient fireman and every faithful policeman in the employ of the city earns every dollar he receives.

But it is my deliberate opinion that money is lavishly expended in other directions.

Matrons and janitors of station houses receive as large or almost as large salaries as the patrolmen of the city, and the first named get more than the teachers of our public schools.

The employees of the dog pound receive larger salaries than half the firemen of the city, who are on duty twenty-four hours in the day.

It requires six men at a salary of $912.50 each per annum to run this very important bureau, notwithstanding the fact that the catching of dogs and the issuing of dog licenses are confined to two or three months in the year.

In the estimates of the Department of Public Safety provision is made for the payment of a salary of $1,500 a year to the Chief Sanitary Inspector of the Board of Health, who at present receives a salary of $1,000 per annum. The proposed salary would place this officer almost on a par with the Superintendent and give him $300 a year more money than is received by the Chief Clerk of the bureau.

By abandoning the use of Rook's bill farm and the store house on Wylie avenue considerable money might be saved to the city. The former is in my judgment an expensive and unnecessary luxury, and whatever supplies are kept in the latter could be removed to the commodious engine house recently erected in the First ward.

Perhaps the most important duty of one of the employees at the store-house to which I refer is to drive one of the officers of the city back and forth between his residence and City hall. Morning, noon and night this duty is performed with unceasing regularity.

It does seem that with the excellent facilities afforded by the cable and electric roads for reaching all parts of the city, many of the horses and buggies supplied at public expense might very properly be dispensed with.

By the exercise of a little more economy in the furnishing of engine and station houses, and in the purchase of house, stable and horse supplies and by relieving the payroll of useless and unnecessary employees, the expenses of the Department of Public Safety might be materially reduced.

In the estimates of the Department of Public Works an appropriation is asked to cover the salaries of 55 men in the Bureau of Engineering and Surveys for a complete year. In this list we find 18 inspectors, 7 chainmen, 8 rodmen and 5 transitmen, whose time is devoted to outdoor service. In view of the fact that their services cannot be profitably employed during a large part of the winter months, why should they be retained on the payroll the year round?

In the estimate for Schenley park provision is made for a timekeeper at $1,000 a year, a consulting engineer and landscape architect for 10 months at $2,000, an assistant engineer at $2,000 a year, 1 transitman, 1 rodman and two chainmen for a full year. What necessity is there for the employment of these men during the whole year? What useful service can they render the city in the winter months? It seems like an inexcusable expenditure of public money to keep men on the payroll when their services cannot be advantageously utilized by the city. I observe also in the contemplated expenditures for Schenley park the same old item of $1,000 for making plans. This item makes its appearance whenever the Appropriation Ordinance is under consideration, and demands recognition. Let us hope that these plans may soon be finished.

In the Bureau of City Property there is a Superintendent who draws a salary of $1,800 a year. He is an excellent gentleman, and should be given something to do. If no duties attach to the position the sooner the office is abolished the better.

I believe that a proper reorganization of some of the departments would relieve the city of much dead timber and save the taxpayers thousands of dollars.

In the Bureau of Highways and Sewers there are eight sidewalk inspectors who should be retired and their duties transferred to the Bureau of Police. Such a course would insure much more efficient service and at the same time effect a saving of $7,500 a year.

During the past few years many thousands of dollars have been expended by the Department of Public Works in the purchase of wagons, carts, machinery, horses, &c., without any express authority so far as I am able to discover.

Such purchases, if made, should be duly authorized by an Ordinance of Council.

Just here let me suggest that it is worthy of consideration whether extensive park improvements could not be more economically made under contract than by the labor of employes of the city.

I might refer to many items in the Ordinance but time will not permit.

Believing that the appropriations could be reduced without impairing the efficiency of the departments, I respectfully return the Ordinance to your honorable body without my approval.

Yours truly,
H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

Which was read and received.

C. C. Bill No. 1006. An Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance making appropriations

S. C. No. 67. Dedication of Augusta street, from Grand View avenue to Rutledge street.

In Select Council April 11th, 1892. Read, accepted and approved.

Which was read, accepted and approved.

S. C. No. 6.

PITTSBURGH, April 4, 1892.

To Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN—I would respectfully ask your honorable bodies for the appointment of one additional Sanitary Policeman for the Bureau of Health, whose duties I propose to prescribe and direct so as to make him an Assistant Meat and Milk Inspector. The rapid and large growth of the city renders it impossible for the Meat and Milk Inspector to look after the various milk depots and stores, and there has been a very large amount of adulteration of milk which it has been impossible to correct with the limited amount of help we have. This is a great and growing evil, and with one additional employee, whose duties I shall prescribe as above stated, to wit: To visit the various railway station at all incoming of trains, and all the large milk depots and stores, and thoroughly regulate and control the milk dealers, so as to prevent this wholesale adulteration of milk, will add much to the efficiency of the Bureau of Health and save the lives of at least many children. The salary of the said appointee to be the same as now paid employees of the Bureau of Health, to wit: the sum of $75 per month.

I would also state to your honorable bodies that the last Councils, under the direction of the Finance Committee, added the sum of $1,500 to the Bureau of Plumbing and House Drainage for the purpose of employing one additional Plumbing and Sewer Inspector, making his salary the same as now paid the present Inspector.

With the very large number of new buildings that are annually put up—last year being upwards of four thousand—it is absolutely impossible for one man to regulate and control the question of plumbing, sewerage and house drainage. This is a very important Bureau, and should regulate and control this matter in a more efficient manner. There is much defective plumbing, sewerage and drainage work being done all over the city by contractors and parties who care nothing about the health and happiness of the citizens, their whole purpose being to have the work done as cheaply as possible; and, as plumbing work is usually hid away out of sight, it is too late after the building is completed to detect and remedy it. With an additional Inspector a close watch can be kept upon all the traps and sewers, as indicated by the plans and specifications that are required to be filed.

I would, therefore, ask your honorable bodies to authorize this Department to appoint an additional Plumbing, Sewer and House Drainage Inspector at the same salary as now paid our present Inspector, to wit: the sum of $1,500 per annum. This will then place the Bureau of Plumbing and House Drainage on the same basis as the Building Inspector's office, to wit: two persons in charge of each Bureau. Even this number is quite insufficient, but it is a step in the right direction, and the granting of these two requests will add much to the efficiency of the Department of Public Safety.

Respectfully submitted,

J. O. BROWN,

Chief Department of Public Safety.

In Select Council April 11th, 1892. Read received and approved.

Which was read.

Mr. Ferguson moved

To strike out the words "fifteen hundred dollars" for Assistant Plumbing Inspector, and insert in lieu thereof the words "twelve hundred dollars"

Upon which motion a division of the vote was had, and the ayes were 8, and the noes were 22.

So the motion did not prevail.

And the petition as read was approved.

To the President and Members of Common Council:

GENTLEMEN:—You are aware that in the case of Safford et al., vs. the members of the late Department of Awards, the point has been submitted to the Court that in the award of all contracts the consent or approval of the Mayor is necessary to make the contract legal and binding.

This point may or may not be affirmed by the Court. But in order to avoid all question as to legality of the approval of the awards of contracts for supplies and materials for the several departments of the city government for the ensuing year, which will be submitted to your honorable bodies to-day, I respectfully suggest that all said awards be approved by resolutions to be afterwards submitted to the Mayor for his approval.

Respectfully yours,

No. 169.

PITTSBURGH, PA., May 9, 1892.

To the Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—

Having been furnished by the clerks of your honorable bodies with certificates of your affirmative action in re approval of contracts for sundry supplies for the current year awarded by the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, which certification of your approval is intended to authorize me to make the necessary disbursements under the said contracts, I desire to inform your honorable bodies of my belief that said action is incomplete and of quite doubtful legality in its present form. Referring to the letter of Mayor Gourley of date ———, wherein he called your attention to the advisability of having his official concurrence upon the approval of those contracts, I am constrained to the same views therein expressed, and will not consider myself sufficiently empowered to pay any bills under those contracts until the power of Councils to bind the city in that manner is established quite clearly beyond a reasonable question.

In this case I do not think the Councils alone have legal power to engage the expenditure of a single dollar. If the approval of contracts be an executive function of municipal government, the Mayor, if he be the Chief Executive, shall have duties to perform pertaining thereto by necessary implication. If such acts are held to be legislative acts they must follow the prescribed course for all legislation and the presentation to the Mayor for his approval or disapproval becomes imperative.

Is the making of contracts an executive or legislative act? It is both, for it is accomplished in two distinct steps. The one is the preparation of the specifications, their exhibition, the examination of the materials and proposals, the tabulation of the bids, and the discriminating exercise of judgment in regard to same, and the designation of the lowest and best, all of which duties, I concede, should be performed by the executive departments severally, subject to the supervisory power of the Mayor. Here the executive functions stop and the legislative powers begin. The resolve, conclusion or determination of the governing body to indulge certain expenditures and commit the city to their payment—the will or consent to make the purchase and let the contract is the other step, and involves the exercise of the legislative power. It is the higher power, initiatory and paramount, and it is in this volitional sense that the law vests in the legislative department the making of contracts. The legislative department of the city alone has the power to make contracts, and must exercise it by a resolution of Councils to that effect, which must be approved by the Mayor or passed over his veto.

As the Consolidation Act of 1867 vested the corporate authority in the Councils and the Mayor, and as the attempt to assign legislative functions specifically to Councils and executive duties specifically to the Mayor by the new charter act of 1887 was disallowed by the Supreme Court, I can see no meaning in the law, unless the joint action of these two arms be necessary to constitute any corporate action at all. This inprinatuar of the corporate power by the consolidation act was confirmed by supplement in 1874, which latter was sought to be repealed in 1875 in respect to the Mayor's power of supervision over the officers, which repealing act has been impeached by the Supreme Court and altogether supplanted by the charter act. The mis-conception which has hitherto attended the discussion upon the powers of the department disappears when we trace their history from 1816 to the present time—from the time when no corporate power existed to its first definite grant in that year to the Councils. It will be understood that the corporate power includes legislative, judicial and executive functions, but the original charter assigned the judicial power to the Mayor—it gave him no executive power—that was reposed with the Councils in the general grant of the corporate power. Hence, the Mayor was known as the Magistrate of the city—nothing more. From 1816 to the consolidation act of 1867, this conception of their status had so diffused itself by infiltration through two generations that it is not surprising the broad notion of Councils' powers shall still survive. But the necessities of modern cities have required a different officer from the by-gone police magistrate, and the mayor as an executive has become incorporated in the plan of city government, clothed with authority to represent the corporation as a supervising and directing business officer. The consolidation act of 1867 marked the beginning of this change in our frame of government as it did in material directions. Subsequent legislation of 1868, 1874, 1875, and 1887, all dealt with this particular feature and in the two instances (1875 and 1887), where modifications backward to the condition prior to consolidation were attempted, the Supreme Court has prevented the change. Their pronouncement upon the Act of 1867, completely striking down the restrictions sought to be put around the Mayor's authority, is yet fresh in our minds, and I have come to perceive that the union of the Mayor and the Councils to perform any corporate act is one of the necessities of our scheme of municipal transactions. There is no other mode of doing business with legal sufficiency. I consider the denial of the Mayor's full right to one-half of all the corporate power conferred by the legislature to be so fallacious as to impute danger to everything Councils may attempt to do without his approval. It is not with me a matter of opinion what powers Councils or the Mayor should have respectively, but a matter of law, and so definite and clear that, as I at first said, I am unwilling to draw a single warrant under those contracts whose award has elicited this communication without advising your honorable bodies of the extreme gravity of the situation.

Sec. 27 of Act of April 6, 1867, says: "All resolutions or orders to enter into a contract whereby the corporation may become liable for the payment of money shall be fully and distinctly read on three different days;" and Sec. 4 of the Act of May 23, 1874, says that "every legislative act of Council shall be by resolution or ordinance, and every ordinance or resolution shall be certified to the Mayor for his approval." This language of the law is its own dictionary: it makes the centering into a contract for payment of money, a duty which Councils are directed to perform in a certain manner—a legislative duty which becomes amenable to legislative form.

I would therefore ask that you reconsider your former action in approving those contracts of the Safety Department, and that your approval be manifested by a proper resolution, which shall be sent to the Mayor for his proper action within his sphere.

Respectfully,

F. S. MORROW,
City Controller.

No. 339.

PITTSBURGH, May 27, 1892.

To the President and Members of Common Council:

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to return to your honorable body without my approval the accompanying resolution authorizing the Controller to issue his certificate on the Mayor for warrants in favor of the The Allegheny County Light Company aggregating the sum of $941.25.

This resolution provides for the payment of a bill of said Company amounting to $907.96 for light furnished Municipal Hall and Market House for the month of March, 1892. Also for payment of bill of $33.33 for light furnished Municipal Hall for the month of April, 1892.

Under a contract with the Pittsburgh Gas Company the City is entitled to the use of about ten thousand dollars ($10,000) worth of gas free. Last year none of this gas was utilized for the reason that the lighting of all the public buildings was covered by contracts with the Electric Light Company. As the contract with the Allegheny County Light Company expired several months ago and has not yet been renewed, there seems to be no obstacle in the way of lighting the Market House and Municipal Hall with gas.

Gas, I am informed was substituted for Electric light in the Market House April 1st, but there seems to be some objection to its use in Municipal Hall.

The market houses and this hall will consume about all the gas to which the city is entitled without charge and they are the only buildings, it seems, in which it can be conveniently used.

To light these buildings with electric light will cost the city not less than $8,000 or $10,000; to light them with gas will cost nothing.

The lighting of Municipal Hall with electric light is now costing the city at the rate of $4,000 a year. To light it with gas will cost nothing. While electric light may be preferable to, and somewhat more convenient than that of gas, the difference is not in my judgment sufficient to justify the use of the former when we can obtain the latter without expense to the city.

It was the intention when the appropriation ordinance was under consideration to light these buildings with free gas, as the item of $8,000 for electric lighting was stricken out of the estimates of the Department of Public Works. Why that intention has not been carried out, I do not know.

I can see no good reason why we should expend four or five thousand dollars in lighting this hall when we can light it for nothing. The light that is good enough for the great mass of our citizens in their residences is certainly good enough for this hall, especially when it can be obtained free. Respectfully,

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

Which was read, received and filed.

And on the question "Shall the resolution pass notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor,"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law and were:

BUSINESS FROM SELECT COUNCIL.

S. C. No. 294.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
PITTSBURGH, PA., May 31st, 1892. }

To the President and Members of Select Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—I respectfully return to your honorable body without my approval an Ordinance (S. C. Bill No. 241) entitled "An Ordinance granting to the Exchange Street Railway Company its successors and assigns the right to enter upon, use and occupy certain streets and highways, and to lease its franchises and property, or either."

Under the ordinance the company will have the right to enter upon and construct its railway or branches or extensions thereof with a single line of track over and along any and all of the following named streets or highways or parts thereof:

Beginning at the intersection of Fourth avenue and Market street, thence along Market street to the intersection thereof with Liberty avenue, thence with the consent of the Allegheny Traction Company and the Transverse Passenger Railway Company along the south-eastern side of Liberty avenue to Sixth avenue and thence with consent of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company and Traction Company along Sixth avenue to Wood street, and to operate its cars thereon.

There are several street railway tracks on Liberty and Sixth avenues at the present time. The Act of Assembly of 1889 expressly says: "No extension or branch of a street railway shall be constructed on any street or highway upon which a track is laid or authorized under any existing charter, except as hereinafter provided. The 'hereinafter provided' refers to the use by one company, with the consent of the city authorities, of such portion, not exceeding 500 feet of the tracks of another company, as may be necessary to enable such company to construct a circuit upon its own road at the end thereof.

If the distance from Market street to Wood street is more than 500 feet I cannot see how the Exchange Street Railway Company could, in the face of this provision of the Act of Assembly, construct its railway upon Liberty and Sixth avenues even with the consent of the city and of the company already occupying the streets. If I am wrong in my understanding of the provision referred to in the Act of 1889, I hope some member of Council more familiar than myself with Legislative enactments will explain what the law really does mean.

It is hardly reasonable to suppose that the Exchange Street Railway Company desires simply to run cars from Wood street by way of Sixth avenue, Liberty avenue and Market street to Fourth avenue and stop there. Yet that is what the ordinance seems to indicate. The intention must be to lease the franchise and property to other companies, having rights and privileges upon other streets. This statement is justified by the language of section two.

Undoubtedly the object of the ordinance is to authorize the Duquesne Traction Company to run its cars over the route designated to Fourth avenue, thence along that street to a connection at Wood street with the tracks of said company now used on Fourth avenue.

Where the Exchange Street Railway Company or the Duquesne Traction Company acquires the right to occupy Fourth avenue between Market and Wood streets I do not know. There is nothing in the present ordinance granting authority to use that portion of the street. However, the important feature of the ordinance is contained in the provision authorizing the construction of railway tracks on Market street and the operation of cars thereon.

Is it wise to permit street railway companies to occupy this street between Liberty and Fourth avenues? To this question I have devoted considerable thought. I have done more than this. I have talked with many of our citizens in order, if possible, to ascertain the feeling of our people on the subject. I have not confined my interview to persons doing business upon the line of the street, because I realize, and I say this with all respect, that their opposition, while entitled to consideration, is very largely the repetition of history as regards the construction of railways upon any street. I have talked with citizens in all parts of our city, and so far as I am able to determine the sentiment of the community is against the operation of cars on this street.

Market street belongs, peculiarly, to the general public, and the people of the city have perhaps a greater interest in it than in any other avenue. Our city markets are on this street and they are visited by the great mass of the people of the city on every market day. The best interests of the city demand that these market houses should, at all times, be accessible to those who bring to market the goods and supplies necessary to meet the wants of our people. These market houses are busy places on market days, and I firmly believe the running of cars upon the street would prove a constant annoyance, and a perpetual source of danger, not only to horses and vehicles, but to men, women and children. This street is but 22 feet from curb to curb and is one of the most crowded thoroughfares in the whole city. That portion of it between Fifth and Liberty avenues constitute the narrow passageway through which the great mass of people going to and coming from Allegheny City daily pass. Perhaps 50,000 to 75,000 human beings pass back and forth along this portion of the street every day of the week.

Very frequently, especially in the afternoons, the whole street is converted into a footway and crowded with men, women and children who are unable to find walking space on the sidewalk. Add to this mass of moving humanity the innumerable vehicles that are constantly coming and going through this contracted passageway and you will be able to form some conception of the condition of Market street at the present time.

I know it is claimed by the advocates of the ordinance, that it only requires a line or several lines of street cars to remove this pressure and relieve the street. But how a street car rushing into this narrow neck every minute or half minute is to effect this radical change is a problem which I confess my inability to understand. The argument is based on the assumption that, outside of the driver of an iron wagon or of an ice wagon, the people have been taught to believe that they have no rights that street cars and street car companies are bound to respect.

At the intersection of Fifth avenue and Market street the cars of the Fifth Avenue Traction Company cross Market street one way or the other on an average about once a minute.

If the cars of the Duquesne Traction Company and the cars of the Allegheny and Manchester line are permitted to occupy Market street, what will be the result?

We will have a car crossing Fifth avenue every thirty seconds and a car crossing Market street every minute; in other words the intersection of these two important streets will be practically monopolized by street railway companies. The principal inlet and outlet for the people of two great cities will be turned over to street cars.

That such a condition of things will seriously interfere with public travel and the rights of the people must be apparent to any person who will take the trouble to carefully examine the situation. I am in favor of rapid transit, but I am not in favor of giving railway companies absolute possession of important streets in the business center of the city to the detriment of the general public.

It is the business of this city that maintains and supports our people and insures our prosperity. Street railways are an outgrowth of the prosperity of the city, and while they are a great convenience they ought not to be permitted to interfere with the free and unrestricted use of the streets for business purposes.

The persons most deeply interested in the passage of this ordinance are the persons most deeply interested in street railways and railway corporations.

Paramount to their interests are the interests of the general public which will, in my judgment, be seriously infringed upon by the surrender of this important street. Hoping your honorable body will give the measure the consideration its importance demands, I am,

Very respectfully,
H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

In Select Council May 31, 1892. Read, received and filed and bill passed, notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor.

Which was read, received and filed.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
PITTSBURGH, PA., May 31st, 1892. }

To the President and Members of Select Council:

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to return to your honorable body without my approval An Ordinance (S. C. Bill No. 14) entitled "An Ordinance granting the consent of the Councils, to the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors, lessees and assigns to enter upon and use certain streets for its railway, and to connect with certain other passenger railways."

The first preamble to this ordinance declares that by reason of the termini of various railways being situate at the intersection of Liberty avenue and Sixth street, the operation of the cars of said Traction Companies is attended with more or less danger to the public.

The second preamble proposes to remedy this evil by making such a distribution of cars of said Traction Companies as will send said cars to other and additional termini throughout the city.

The ordinance then proceeds to give the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company the right to construct, maintain and operate an electric street railway, beginning at end of North Side bridge on Seventh street; thence along Duquesne Way to Water street; thence along Water street to Wood street. Also at an end of North Side bridge to connect with tracks of Transverse Passenger Railway Company; thence along Seventh street to Liberty. Also, at corner of Sixth and Penn to connect with south track of Citizens Passenger Railway Company; thence along Penn avenue to Seventh street, with authority to straddle said track on Penn avenue if permission cannot be obtained from Citizens Railway Company to use the track already there.

Also, with consent of Allegheny Traction Company to connect with tracks of Transverse Passenger Railway at Sixth and Liberty where said streets intersect with Market.

Also, with consent of Allegheny Traction Company, said company shall have the right to operate its cars over all the streets now used and occupied by the Allegheny Traction Company for the operation of its cars, and also upon such other streets as the Allegheny Traction Company, as lessor of the Transverse Passenger Railway Company may have the right to operate its cars on.

Also, beginning at Liberty and Market; thence along Market street to Fourth avenue; thence along Fourth avenue to Wood street; thence along Wood street on Transverse tracks with consent of the Allegheny Traction Company. The ordinance provides, also, that if the Exchange Street Railway Company be authorized to lay tracks on Market street, then the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors, lessees and assigns shall obtain consent of said Exchange Street Railway Company to operate over its tracks on Market street.

Also, that it shall be authorized to agree with such street railway companies as have rights and tracks on Fourth avenue between Market and Wood to use such tracks for the operation of its cars. If permission from other companies cannot be had for the use of tracks on Market and Fourth avenue then the said Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company shall have the right to lay additional tracks upon Market street and Fourth avenue over the route specified.

The ordinance provides for numerous other rights and franchises which I have really not the time to enumerate.

It is an omnibus measure in the fullest sense of the term. It seems to have been drawn especially in the interest of lessors, lessees, successors and assigns. It is evidently intended to convey all the authority and grant all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises which the company may see fit to use or exercise at any time in the future.

It is the most comprehensive and complex piece of legislation that has been submitted to me for approval since I have occupied this office.

Never before, so far as I have knowledge, has any one ordinance conferred such extensive rights and privileges, and these too without one scintilla of compensation to the city. It even contains a provision modifying the section of the General Ordinance requiring companies to pave between the tracks and one foot outside thereof. This paving, as provided by the ordinance, is to be limited to streets not paved with block stone.

The Transverse Passenger Railway Company, which occupies Wood street, paved between the tracks and one foot outside thereof with block stone as a small compensation to the city for its occupancy of the street.

Under this ordinance, the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Manchester Passenger Railway Company is authorized to use the Wood street tracks jointly with the Transverse Company. It will be relieved from all paving because the street is already paved with block stone, and yet the ordinance requires no other compensation. The company is granted permission to operate its cars upon this important street without the payment of one dollar to the city. What is true of this street will apply with equal force to many of the other streets enumerated in this ordinance.

This ordinance succeeds in distributing the dangerous termini mentioned in the two preambles already referred to, but it forgets to say anything about the numerous crossings and corners that this distribution converts into places of constant danger to the public.

Let me refer to one of these: If the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company is permitted to occupy Market street and Fourth avenue all its cars will swing around the corner at Fourth avenue and Wood street and across the tracks of the Wylie Avenue line in order to reach the tracks of the Transverse Company on the east side of this street. We will have cars circling around from Wood to Fourth, and cars swinging around from Fourth to Wood every minute in the day thus converting a corner already dangerous into a place of ten-fold greater danger. I might speak also of Fourth and Market, Fifth and Market, Fifth and Wood and many other crossings and corners, but time will not permit.

I mention these things to show that while the ordinance may lessen the danger, as claimed by the company, at Liberty and Market, it will increase the peril in a dozen other places. And yet there is not a provision in the ordinance requiring the company to station men at these dangerous crossings and corners for the protection of the public.

By-and-by the city will be asked to pay the philanthropist as usual, and supply officers who shall be paid by the taxpayers to protect the lives and property of our people from the companies and corporations that have become rich and are becoming richer by wresting gratuitous franchises from the municipality.

Aye, it is said that after awhile an ordinance will be passed placing a tax of fifty dollars on each street car operated on the streets of our city.

Have you calculated the amount of revenue this tax will produce? Well, just about twelve or fifteen thousand dollars; while it will cost the city not one cent less than forty thousand dollars annually to pay the officers required to signal the cars of these companies and corporations at the crossings and corners of our streets.

We are told that street railways are a convenience to the public. No one denies this, but it does not follow that they should be permitted to absolutely monopolize the business streets of the city without some reasonable compensation. They are a convenience, but the people pay for the convenience. They are primarily for the benefit of the companies and the pecuniary advantage of their projectors.

We have given away very many valuable franchises without demanding any equivalent return to the city. Some of these have been utilized by the companies receiving them, while others have been transferred to other corporations for valuable considerations.

Is it not our duty as the sworn representatives of the people to see that these numerous rights and privileges which are a source of so much profit to companies and corporations are made a source of some revenue to our city?

My objections to the placing of tracks or the operation of cars on Market street are fully presented in my communication accompanying the Exchange Street Railway ordinance herewith enclosed. These objections apply with equal force to this ordinance and need not be repeated here.

I respectfully request that that communication be read before action is taken by your honorable body on this ordinance.

Very respectfully,

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

Which was read, received and filed.

And on the question "Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. Magee presented

No. 412.

June 25th, 1892.

To the Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—There is submitted to you a joint-resolution, authorizing a settlement to be made with Mrs. Isabel C. Sargeant, of various claims held by the City for improvements made.

These claims aggregate the sum of $18,000, and are for streets and sewers. She has offered, through her counsel, to withdraw all exceptions filed, and also her demand for trial by jury, and pay the City the sum of $14,000 cash in sixty days after the approval of such resolution. In consideration of which all claims by the City are to be settled and discontinued.

The offer made, in my judgment, should be accepted.

The litigation is likely to be greatly protracted, and the result of it doubtful. I believe the interests of the City will be subserved by accepting her offer—will save heavy costs, and put into the treasury in a very short time a large sum of money.

I would therefore respectfully ask at your hands the adoption of the resolution.

I am, with great respect,

Yours truly,

WILLIAM C. MORELAND,
City Attorney.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also,

No. 413.

Joint-resolution of the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, authorizing the compromise and settlement of assessments of benefits against various properties of Isabel C. Sargeant for improvements of Negley and Stanton avenues, and sewers on Stanton and Negley avenues and Hights Run.

WHEREAS, there is in litigation between the City of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Isabel C. Sargeant, assessments against properties of Mrs. S. J. Sargeant, otherwise Mrs. Isabel C. Sargeant for the improvement of Negley avenue and sewers on Stanton and Negley avenues and Hights Run. And whereas, there also exists a claim of said City against properties now of the same person (and some of which may be assessed therefor in some other name) for the improvement of Stanton avenue, claimed to have been made under the Penn Avenue Act, which is doubtful. Which claims or assessments (including Stanton avenue compromise) amount to $18,000. And whereas, there are many doubtful and intricate questions involved in the matters in dispute involving claims on the part of said Isabel C. Sargeant for damages for taking her property. And whereas, the attorney for said City, and the attorney for the said Mrs. Sargeant believe it beneficial to all parties—the City consenting to the same—to compromise all of said cases by the payment to said City of the sum of $14,000.

Therefore resolved, That W. C. Moreland, Esq., City Attorney, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to settle and discontinue all suits and actions against said Mrs. Sargeant and her properties, and satisfy all liens and incumbrances touching the same upon the payment of the sum of $14,000 within sixty days from the approval by the Mayor of this joint-resolution.

Which was read

And the rule having been suspended the resolution was read a second and third times and finally passed.

No. 530.

PITTSBURGH, PA. Sept. 12, 1892.

To the President and Members of Common Council.

GENTLEMEN:—As you are fully aware, our country is threatened with a dangerous epidemic.

By the vessels from infected seaports of Europe, Asiatic cholera has been brought within a few miles of New York City.

While the rigid enforcement of quarantine regulations has to the present time prevented the dread disease from reaching our shores, we cannot tell at what hour it may force its way into some of our seaport cities.

Should cholera appear in New York the danger of its reaching our own city will become imminent.

We should be fully prepared for the emergency.

Much excellent work has already been done by the officers and employes of the various departments and bureaus of the Municipal Government towards the improvement of the sanitary condition of the city. Sewers and sewer-drops have been cleansed and disinfected; streets and alleys have been washed; stagnant pools have been drained; nuisances have been abated, and the accumulated filth in the rivers at the mouths of the sewers has been removed.

In addition to this the people generally have been notified to remove all house-refuse and garbage from their premises and to thoroughly cleanse, whitewash, and ventilate their cellars and out-houses. In response to the notices given very many of our citizens have rendered the officers and employes of the city efficient aid in the work of sanitation.

What has been done thus far has been done without any large expenditure of money; but should cholera invade any of our seaports, especially New York, much additional work will be required to prevent the introduction or spread of the disease in our city.

It may and doubtless will become necessary to establish inspection stations on the lines of our various railroads, provide temporary hospitals within the limits of our city, appoint physicians, officers and nurses for the care of the sick. In such an event the Department of Public Safety should be supplied with the money necessary to provide for the proper treatment and isolation of the afflicted and for the protection of the public from the ravages of the disease.

I, therefore, respectfully but earnestly suggest that your honorable bodies duly authorize the finance committee to provide an ample fund which may be drawn upon for the purposes designated in case the emergency should so require.

Respectfully yours,

H. J. GOURLEY,

Mayor.

Which were severally read, received and filed.

E. S. MORROW, ESQ.

City Controller.

MY DEAR SIR:—Repeated interviews have made you so familiar with the condition of McKee Place I only need mention it to refresh your recollection of the facts.

We are in such condition there is no alternative but pay. After weeks of work I have formerly closed with the owners of property, subject to approval by Councils.

It will cost the city nearly $25,000 to adjust these various claims.

A respectfully ask you to submit to Councils a joint resolution authorizing the payment of the money upon the execution and delivery to the city of proper releases, including a formal dedication of the street.

Very truly yours,

BUSINESS FROM SELECT COUNCIL.

S. C. No. 449.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
PITTSBURGH, PA., September 12, 1892.

To the President and Members of Select Council:

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to return to your honorable body, without my approval, the following resolutions and Articles of Agreement, to wit:—

FIRST. A resolution (S. C. No. 338) binding the City to purchase from Edward M. Bigelow, Chief of the Department of Public Works, a piece of property, about five acres, adjoining the Highland Park, and known as the Fite property, for the sum of sixty-five thousand ($65,000) dollars.

SECOND. Articles of Agreement (S. C. No. 339) by and between William Flinn and Edward M. Bigelow, Chief of the Department of Public Works, together with accompanying resolutions, binding the City to purchase from the said William Flinn fourteen acres, more or less, of land adjoining the Highland Park at the price of $7,384.16 per acre, or for the total sum of about $105,500.00.

THIRD. Articles of Agreement (S. C. No. 337) by and between Charles Lockhart, by his attorney in fact, James H. Lockhart, of the first part, and Edward M. Bigelow, Chief of the Department of Public Works, of the second part, binding the City to purchase from the said Charles Lockhart three pieces or tracts of land adjoining or contiguous to Highland Park, and embracing about twenty-seven and a half acres, at the price of $2,538.21 per acre, or for the sum total of about $70,326.00.

These contracts contemplate the purchase of about forty-eight acres of additional land for Highland Park at an aggregate expense of two hundred and forty-one thousand ($241,000) dollars.

They are not options, as some persons imagine; they absolutely bind the City to take the property at the price designated.

The resolution authorizes and directs the controller to issue a certificate for a warrant upon the proper appropriation for the amount of the purchase money, upon the approval of the title to said property by the City Attorney. There is no appropriation out of which to pay for this property. Such an expenditure was not contemplated when the appropriations for the present year were made. It is impossible, therefore, to issue a certificate for a warrant for such a purpose upon any existing appropriation. This is well known by all the parties concerned. It is admitted the money cannot be paid now. The present owners of the property are willing to wait until after the passage of the next appropriation ordinance which will have to provide an appropriation to meet this indebtedness of $241,000.00.

Why not defer these purchases, then, until your honorable body shall have made the appropriation for the purpose? Under the law the expenditures authorized by the appropriation ordinance are limited to the revenues of the city. Why, then, assume a liability and create an indebtedness in violation of the law? Under extraordinary circumstances, and in some great emergency such action might be excusable, but there is neither necessity nor public demand for the purchase of these properties in this irregular way.

The precedent established by such action is bad. If it is proper to create, at the present time, an indebtedness of $241,000.00 to be provided for in the appropriations of the coming year, it will be just as proper next year to create an indebtedness of a million dollars to be paid out of appropriations of the year thereafter. Even though such a policy were in strict harmony with law, its evil tendency must be apparent to all.

But we have no right whatever, to bind the city to the purchase of property unless the money has been previously appropriated to meet the payments. The piece of land known as the Fite property ought, I believe, to belong to the park, and, while [$65,000] seems a very large amount of money for so small a piece of property, I would nevertheless feel disposed to approve its purchase if we had an appropriation for the purpose. It lies at the Highland avenue entrance, and its acquisition for park purposes would improve the drive-way, and add materially to the beauty and value of the park. If it is deemed advisable to buy this property your honorable body can make an appropriation for that purpose the coming year. When the money is in the treasury the purchase can be made in a legal way, if it must be made. I may state very frankly that at this time I am not in favor of the purchase of the other properties referred to in this communication.

Highland Park contains at present, I believe, about two hundred and fifty acres, and is in my judgement abundantly large to meet all the requirements for the next ten years or more. If there is a settled determination on the part of your honorable body to buy additional park property, I am strongly inclined to the opinion that the wants and demands of the South Side people are entitled to consideration.

They have paid their full proportion of the expense attending the improvement and purchase of park properties which are, at least, in a measure inaccessible to them. If we must have additional land for park purposes the interest and convenience of the South Side citizens should, therefore, determine its location.

We are informed, however, that both Schenley and Highland Parks are to be greatly enlarged. Some enthusiastic individuals declare that the former shall extend to Murray avenue and the latter to Bryant street. The consummation of these magnificent projects means the purchase of four or five hundred acres of land at an expense of at least two millions of dollars. If such purchases are seriously contemplated the whole subject of acquiring park property should be taken up systematically and submitted to the people in the form of a proposition for the issue of bonds with which to meet the expense.

Such a course would give the people an opportunity of being heard regarding extensive purchases of this character. If approved by them the consequent indebtedness would be distributed over a series of years and the acquisition of park property finally adjusted for all time to come.

Additional park property will necessitate additional appropriations for its improvement and these expenditures together with the purchase money will either increase the tax levy or curtail the necessary expenses of the municipality in other important matters.

It should be borne in mind just here that the city is annually spending large amounts of money in the payment of rent for leased property for the use of fire and police bureaus, and this too upon the plea that we are not in financial condition at the present time to justify the purchase of the property required.

This very year the Department of Public Safety is reconstructing buildings upon leased property for a Central Station and an Engine House at an expense to the city of not less than fifty thousand dollars. As is well known, only a few months before abandoning the rented Station House in Diamond alley the sum of four or five thousand dollars was expended in improvements upon it.

If your honorable body desires to purchase property, would it not be well to purchase it for these very important purposes and thus relieve the city of the very considerable expense attending the payment of rent, and at the same time avoid the necessity of making expensive and valuable improvements on property which belongs to private individuals?

I may be permitted to state in this connection that I am in favor of parks. I consider them an incalculable blessing to the people of a large and densely populated city. I believe too, that in this city we should have several parks, but I am not in sympathy with the idea that every park should embrace a large area of land. One park of considerable extent is essential, in order that ample drive-ways may be provided for the accommodation and enjoyment of those who have vehicles and wish to drive. For this purpose Schenley Park answers every demand. It is just as accessible to the people of East End as it is to people of the old portion of the city or of the South Side.

Those, therefore, who wish to drive can find no more delightful place for such recreation than Schenley Park. But the great mass of our people do not drive. When they visit the park they go on foot or patronize the street cars. When they reach the grounds they have neither time nor disposition to travel over three or four hundred acres of park property. They want shade, they want rest.

I believe, therefore, in locating parks as near the people as possible. A small park convenient to the people of a given locality is much more desirable, much more beneficial, than a five hundred-acre park seven or eight miles distant.

I am unable at the present time to see any necessity for two large parks in this city. In the years to come Schenley will be the great central park of Pittsburgh. If it is not large enough it can be made larger after awhile.

But the interests of the whole people will not in my judgement be subserved by large additions to Highland Park. It is at the extreme eastern limit of the city and is far removed from the great mass of working people who constitute the very large proportion of our population, and who need, more than all others, the advantages, enjoyments and recreation which parks afford.

I must not be understood as opposing Highland Park, because I am not. It serves a grand purpose, but I believe it to be sufficiently large to meet all the requirements of those who can with any degree of convenience enjoy its advantages.

I do not consider the present or the immediate future an opportune time for large expenditures in park purchases, but if such purchases must be made I would earnestly suggest that your honorable body consider the advisability of providing a pleasure-ground somewhere on the South Side, before investing almost two hundred and fifty thousand dollars in the manner proposed by the accompanying contracts.

Respectfully yours,

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

Which was read and received.

The Chair presented

No. 673.

PITTSBURGH, PA., October 10, 1892.

To the President and Members of Common Council:

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to return to your honorable body without my approval a resolution (C. C. No. 538) authorizing the settlement of "claims made against the City of Pittsburgh for damage arising from the opening and grading of McKee Place."

The grading already done on McKee Place was done under an ordinance approved April 3d, 1890, for the grading, paving, and curbing of said street, from Fifth avenue to Frazier street.

It is only necessary, however, in the discussion of the matter before us, to refer to that portion of McKee Place extending from Forbes to Ward street. For convenience this portion may be divided into two parts, one of which extends from Forbes to Bates street, and the other from Bates to Ward street. The part extending from Forbes to Bates street, a distance of about fourteen hundred feet, has been dedicated or set apart as a street by the McKee heirs. On this there is no claim for present or prospective damages.

The part extending from Bates to Ward street, a distance of 390 feet, has not been dedicated by the property owners. To this section the claims for damages referred to in the resolution are wholly confined.

The grading thus far done is confined to that portion of McKee Place dedicated by the McKee heirs and extending, as I have stated, from Forbes to Bates street.

If we except a very little filling, embracing an area of about twenty feet square, in the bed of an old 30-foot street, on line of the proposed McKee Place, and laid out in J. H. Sawyer's plan of lots, the property between Bates and Ward street has not, up to the present time, been touched, encroached upon or damaged.

The city has not, therefore, taken possession of the property for which damages are demanded. The city is not yet a trespasser. The property owners are at this time suffering no damages.

Their claims are not for existing but for prospective damages. The resolution proposes that the city shall pay these people $25,000.00 for the damages they may sustain in case McKee Place between Bates and Ward street shall be opened and graded.

And why should the city assume this expense? There is, in my judgment, no more justice in so doing than there would be in a proposition to have the city pay the taxes of the people on the line of McKee Place.

The proposed improvement is very largely local in its character. Those interested in the McKee property frankly admit that it will very greatly enhance the value of their land. The same is unquestionably true of much other property on the line of the street. Why then should we take $25,000.00 from the treasury of the city to pay for the damages attending an improvement which is of no special benefit to the general public, but from which the property owners generally on the line of the improvement will derive so much benefit.

If you, the members of your honorable body, could visit the ground and see for yourselves, as I have done, I am sure you would decide that it is neither just nor wise to consummate the settlement proposed by the resolution.

What then should be done? According to a statement given me by the Chief of Department of Public Works, the cost of the grading already done by the contractors, Booth & Flinn, amounts to $11,700. This work, as already stated, has been done on the part of the street dedicated by the McKee heirs, but it has been done under a contract with the city, and the city is legally bound to pay for the same.

Is it not better to pay the contractors $11,700.00 for the work done and then stop, rather than expend $25,000.00 of the city's money in the payment of the prospective damages set forth in the resolution?

The McKee heirs can then proceed, as they are ready to do, and as they will be compelled to do, in order to bring their own property into the market, to complete the work, on McKee place between Forbes and Bates street, on their own responsibility and at their own expense.

Let the work on the remainder of the improvement be absolutely discontinued until such time as those interested in, and benefited by, its completion shall provide for the payment of the damages which this resolution would thrust upon the city.

The McKee heirs reap the benefit of the work already done, and they may feel in duty bound to reimburse the city for the money that must be paid under the contract with Booth & Flinn.

Should they do so the city will lose nothing. Should they not do so the city will lose $13,000.00 less money by paying the contractors and discontinuing work than by the settlement contemplated by the resolution.

I am in favor of improvements, but I am not in favor of paying the damages attending local improvements out of the treasury of the city. This has been done to a considerable extent in the past, and unless great care is exercised by your honorable bodies in the opening of streets and in the fixing of grades the city will be compelled under the New Street Acts, to expend large amounts of money in the payment of damages incident to improvements of a purely local character.

Yours respectfully,

H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor.

S. C. No. 524.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

PITTSBURGH, PA., October 31, 1892.

To the President and Members of Select Council.

GENTLEMEN:—I respectfully return to your honorable body without my approval S. C. Bill No. 308. "An Ordinance granting to the Bellefield Street Railway Company, its successors, lessees and assigns the right to enter upon, use and occupy a certain street, avenue and highway for the purpose of its railway, and to lease its franchises and property or either."

This ordinance confers upon the Bellefield Street Railway Company, which is a branch of the Duquesne Traction Company, the right to construct a double track railway on Centre avenue, from Neville street to Herron avenue.

On the same day that this measure was presented to Council, the Central Passenger Railway Company introduced an ordinance asking for the privilege of extending its railway to the East End by way of Center avenue.

Both ordinances were on the same day referred by your honorable body to the Committee on Corporations. This one was promptly considered by the committee, returned with a favorable recommendation, and passed by Council. On the other, no action has yet been taken by your committee. The committee has not returned it to your honorable body. You have not had the opportunity of comparing the two ordinances and of determining which is the more beneficial to the general public.

I trust you will pardon me for discussing a measure not officially before me, but I cannot present my objections to this ordinance in a clear and satisfactory manner without making some reference to the ordinance of the Central Passenger Railway Company proposing to give the city another continuous railway to East Liberty.

Both these franchises cannot be granted. The one necessarily excludes the other. Which, then, will be the more advantageous to the city? Which will be the more useful to our people? These are questions which it devolves upon us to answer.

I believe another through line of railway to East Liberty is needed now, and will become an absolute necessity in the immediate future.

Any citizen who daily travels to and from the East End knows by experience and observation that every evening one-half the people who patronize the Fifth avenue and Duquesne roads are compelled to stand in crowded cars on their way to their homes.

Another continuous line to the East End would relieve this pressure and enable citizens who pay their fares to enjoy the convenience of seats.

The ordinance of the Central Passenger Railway Company, proposes to supply just such a railway, thus enabling citizens to make the complete trip either way, between Wood street and Penn avenue, on payment of one fare.

Surely such a road would be infinitely more useful to the general public than the mere fragment of a railway contemplated by this ordinance.

The one would be a public benefit, the other would be a permanent obstruction midway in a great thoroughfare to prevent for all time the construction of a competing road.

Let us suppose this Bellefield railway built. A resident of Herron Hill desires to come into the city. He enters a car, pays his fare, rides down the hill to Herron avenue and is dumped off. He then takes passage on the Central Passenger road, pays another fare and continues on his way to the city. The citizen is put to the expense of paying two fares, and suffers, besides, the inconvenience of changing cars, simply because he is compelled to patronize two different and opposing roads.

Such an arrangement is certainly not in the interest of the people for whose convenience and accommodation railways are supposed to be built.

We are told, however, that the resident of Herron Hill can ride the other way on the Bellefield road to Neville street, thence by Craig street road to Fifth avenue, where he can be transferred to the Fifth avenue road and thus reach the city by the payment of one fare.

But would not this be a circuitous route by which to get to the business center of the city? Would not the time consumed in making the trip be more than double that required by the shorter and more direct route by way of Center avenue?

If "time is money," should not time be considered an important element in providing facilities for carrying citizens to and from their homes?

The Central Passenger Railway Company, I am informed, already has by express agreement from the Duquesne Traction Company, the privilege of using the tracks of the Craig Street Railway Company on Center avenue eastwardly a distance of about a mile to Negley avenue.

The construction of five-sixths of a mile of road from Herron avenue to Neville street, and of 2,500 feet eastwardly on Center avenue from Negley avenue would, therefore, give the said Central Passenger Railway Company a continuous line of road from Wood street to Liberty Hall.

Travel, on the cable and electric roads, to and from the East End is increasing every day, and it will only be a very short time until additional facilities will be required to carry the immense number of people who will be located in that part of our city.

Is it wise, then, to give up a part of Center avenue to a company that does not propose to give the city a through road to the East End and by so doing establish an insuperable barrier against the consummation of such a project in the future?

As between these two companies asking permission to occupy Center avenue, I firmly believe the interests of the public will be best subserved by granting the franchise to the company that promises facilities for through travel.

If my position be correct, then, it becomes our duty as the representatives of the people to refuse the rights and privileges asked for by the Bellefield Company in this ordinance.

I have other objections to the ordinance. Recently, as you know, Center avenue has, at the expense of the abutting property owners, been paved with block stone.

The ordinance should therefore, contain a provision requiring the company to pay for the materials used in paving the seven or eight thousand square yards of the street which will be occupied by the railway, should the ordinance be finally passed, and which, under the provisions of the general ordinance the company will be required to pave.

The ordinance passed a short time ago granting the Citizens Passenger Railway Company privilege to construct a railway on Frankstown avenue, recently paved by the property owners, contains such a provision and there is no good reason why a similar requirement should not be embodied in this measure.

I may say here that the parties interested in the Bellefield Railway Company tell me that the omission of this provision was an oversight, and that they are not only satisfied, but desire, to have it inserted in the ordinance. The cost of the material referred to will amount, approximately, to $12,000 or $13,000.

The ordinance should contain also a provision requiring that the railway shall be constructed within a specified time.

I know the Act of Assembly says that work shall, in good faith, be commenced within one year and completed within two years from the approval of the ordinance, but this provision is simply directory.

It is something like the Legislative enactment that directs our appropriations to be made during the month of January or February in each year, and yet we know our appropriation ordinance is never passed until late in the month of March.

In conclusion permit me to state that cable and electric roads have been a great benefit to our city, and this fact constitutes an unanswerable argument why we should not erect breastworks to prevent other companies from building roads and competing for the patronage of the public, especially in cases where such roads are an acknowledged necessity.

Respectfully Yours,

H. I. GURLEY,
Mayor.

WHEREAS, in the case of Michael J. WHEREAS, the plaintiffs in said cause are willing to accept the amount of the verdict recovered in the action against Mellon Brothers, from the City of Pittsburgh, in final settlement of all claims and demands that they or either of them may have against said city by reason of the injury done to their property in the opening of said street, and it is deemed prudent the said City of Pittsburgh should pay the amount so recovered and settle the claim, and thus avert further litigation; therefore, be it Resolved, that the City Controller is hereby authorized, empowered and directed, to settle and compromise the claim of the said Michael J. Dunn and Margaret, his wife, against the city for the sum of two hundred and forty dollars ($240), upon the said Dunn and wife executing to the city a proper release of all other and further claims and demands which they or either of them may have against the said city for or by reason of damages sustained in the opening of the said Kirkwood street, the release therefor to be approved by the City Attorney.

DEAR SIR:—In compliance with the Charter Ordinance I herewith submit to your estimated appropriation for the Department of Public Safety for the year 1893, together with detailed and itemized statement of the expenses of the Department for the last twelve months.

Respectfully submitted,

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1892.

HON. H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor City of Pittsburgh.

DEAR SIR:—Complying with the Acts of Assembly and Ordinances of Councils, I have the pleasure of presenting to you the report of the expenditures and receipts of the Department of Public Works for the ten months ending November 30th, 1892.

If desired, we will cheerfully furnish you with detailed accounts of items shown, with pay rolls and vouchers for the same, together with any other information.

The amounts remaining to the credit of the several Bureaus in the Department, will with careful management, meet all demands.

In making the estimates for the several Bureaus for the incoming year I have endeavored to keep them down to the lowest possible limit, knowing that with experience, careful management, new and improved machinery, we will be able to successfully meet all the requirements for the next year.

In the Bureau of Engineering and Surveys I have asked for fifty-eight thousand dollars, being an increase of twenty thousand dollars over the appropriation of 1892, that being the amount it will cost to properly conduct the Bureau, owing to the great amount of work to be performed.

The amount asked for to run the entire Department for the year 1893 is one hundred and seventy-seven thousand, three hundred and seventy-six dollars and sixty cents ($177,376.60) less than the appropriation for the year 1892.

Very respectfully,

E. M. BIGELOW,

Chief Department of Public Works.

PITTSBURGH, December 28, 1892.

HON. H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor City of Pittsburgh.

I herewith present my report as Chief of the Department of Charities for the year ending November 30th, 1892.

During this period the Department disbursed $87,922.46 and received from various sources $4,752.39, leaving a net disbursement of $83,170.07.

In the Out-door Relief branch, "during the above mentioned period," the Department furnished various persons 27,325 bushels of coal, 1,913 pairs of shoes, 94 burial orders and 624 railroad tickets to different parts of the country. The District Physicians attended 1,198 charity cases, compounding and prescribing for same 5,429 prescriptions, receiving 2,408 office calls, and making in connection with above 3,195 home visits.

I estimate the necessities of the Department "as per annexed statement" for the fiscal year, commencing February 1st, 1893, at one hundred and seventy thousand dollars ($170,000). Ninety thousand dollars ($90,000) for the running expenses of the Department, and eighty dollars ($80,000) for the completion of all buildings, etc., at New Poor Farm.

Respectfully submitted,

R. C. ELLIOT,

Chief Department of Charities.

BOARD OF ASSESSORS.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Dec. 31, 1892.

HON. H. I. GOURLEY, Mayor.

DEAR SIR: This board asks an appropriation of eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) for clerical help during the ensuing fiscal year.

Very respectfully,

FRANK P. CASE,

Chief Assessor.

OFFICE CENTRAL BOARD OF EDUCATION, }
PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1893. }

HON. H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh.

DEAR SIR.—I have the honor to submit herewith a statement showing the estimated expenditures of the Central Board of Education for the fiscal year commencing February 1, 1893.

The total amount of expenses is estimated at five hundred two thousand eight hundred dollars ($502,800). Of this sum four hundred sixty thousand dollars ($460,000) will be required to pay teachers' salaries. The increase in this item of expense ($40,000) over the amount appropriated last year is due to the increase in our attendance, which made the employment of a large number of additional teachers necessary and an advance in salaries paid teachers.

The balance of the appropriation, forty-two thousand eight hundred dollars ($12,800), will be required to meet the expense of the High and Normal Schools and other expenses of the Board as given in the detailed statement submitted.

The Central Board will cheerfully furnish any information you may desire to enable you to present to the citizens a statement as to the disposition of the funds entrusted to its care.

Yours respectfully,

CHAS. REISFAR, JR.,

Secretary.

Board of Assessors—Cont'd.

*Police Magistrate McKenna sent two of his prisoners to the Work House who also paid fines.

Which were read, received and referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Bigham by unanimous consent presented

No. 926.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

Your Committee on Free Bridges having carefully considered the problem in its various bearings and made a personal examination of the banks of the Monongahela river from the Point to South Thirty-fourth street would respectfully report that in their judgment said river should be spanned by at least four bridges between said points, all of which should be open for public travel without the imposition of tolls.

In justice, however, to the parties who invested their money in the construction of the existing bridges at a time when they could be obtained in no other way, your committee feel that an effort should be made to purchase the existing structures upon an equitable basis before supplying their places by new erections at or close to the location of the present bridges.

The capital represented in the existing bridges at the present time is approximately as follows:

Smithfield street bridge	$1,000,000
Point bridge	600,000
Tenth street bridge	300,000

Your committee believes, however, that these figures might be considerably modified upon negotiation with the parties in interest.

In pursuance, therefore, of a general plan, embracing four bridges, they have selected South Twenty-second to Brady street as the most suitable location for the bridge to be built with the money now in hand and to be appropriated the current year and would recommend that proper steps be taken to authorize the issue of bonds to an amount not exceeding $1,500,000 to be used in the purchase of the existing bridges or the erection of new bridges at other suitable points.

For this purpose they have returned with their affirmative recommendation appropriate ordinances for which they ask your favorable consideration.

KIRK Q. BIGHAM,
Chairman.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also

No. 927. An Act of Assembly entitled "An Act authorizing cities of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to purchase bridges already erected, or to erect and maintain bridges over streams and rivers which may separate portions of such cities, and providing for the condemnation of such land as may be necessary for piers, abutments, fills, slopes and approaches thereto.

Which were read and approved.

Also,

No. 928. An Act of Assembly entitled "An Act authorizing cities of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to enter upon, take, use and appropriate private property for the construction of piers, abutments, fills, slopes and approaches for bridges crossing rivers within the corporate limits thereof, and providing the manner in which compensation shall be made."

Which were read and approved.

Also

C. C. Bill No. 861. An ordinance entitled, "An Act authorizing the erection of a bridge for public use across the Monongahela river from South Twenty-second street to Forbes street at or near Brady street."

Which was read.

Mr. Bigham moved

A suspension of the rule to allow the second and third readings and final passage of the bill.

Which motion prevailed.

And the bill was read a second time.

Mr. Finn moved

That the bill be re-committed to the Committee on Free Bridges.

Which motion prevailed.

Also

C. C. Bill No. 862. An Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance authorizing submission to the electors of the City of Pittsburgh of the question of increasing the indebtedness of the city, for the purpose of erecting and purchasing bridges over the Monongahela river for public use."

Which was read.

Mr. Bigham moved

A suspension of the rule to allow the second and third readings and final passage of the bill.

Which motion prevailed.

And the bill was read a second time and agreed to.

And the bill was read a third time and agreed to.

And the title of the bill was read and agreed to.

And on the question "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

AYES—Messrs.

Mr. Magee presented, from the Finance Committee.

No. 929.

January 9, 1903.

To the Select and Common Council:

PITTSBURGH, January 6th, 1893.

To the Common Council of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—On November 14th last you referred to me an ordinance repealing an ordinance authorizing the opening of Winslow street from Park avenue to Turrett street and asking my report thereon.

An examination of the matter satisfies me the ordinance should be repealed. The part of the street to be opened is very small and the costs will be heavy. In my judgment it would be well to have the entire street opened. The proceedings heretofore acted upon by you can be withdrawn from court.

No. 1019.

PITTSBURGH, February 27th, 1893.

To the Select and Common Councils.

GENTLEMEN:—The city has large balances in several sinking funds not pledged to particular loans but which are applicable to the payment of any of the maturing indebtedness of the city. No. 1029.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

PITTSBURGH, PA., March 6th, 1893.

To the Honorable the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh.

SIRS—At the urgent demand of a large number of worthy citizens, on November 30, 1892, by a communication of that date, in the exercise of the supervisory power of the Mayor, I directed the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, by his police, "to enforce the law against all houses of ill-repute in the city." A copy of the letter conveying my directions on this subject, together with the enclosure transmitted herewith, is herewith attached, marked "A."

Immediately upon receiving this direction the Chief of the Department of Public Safety issued an order to the Superintendent of Police commanding him "to close and keep closed all houses of ill-repute in this city." A copy of the order referred to is hereto attached, marked "B."

He at the same time issued to his subordinates a verbal order which he communicated to me in person, to notify the keepers of such houses to have their inmates out and their houses closed by 10 o'clock in the evening of the day on which his orders were issued.

In response to these orders from the Chief, the Superintendent of Police instructed his inspectors and detectives to close all such houses on the same day. This summary action on the part of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety was wholly without warrant of law, and was necessarily contrary to my direction, which simply called upon him "to enforce the law against all houses of ill-repute in the city."

On December 1, 1892, in a public address to a large number of the women who had thus been summarily thrown into the streets, I denounced this cruel and illegal action of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, as it deserved. Thereupon the Chief, on December 2, 1892, issued an order to the Superintendent of Police not "to eject or molest any of the inmates of the houses of prostitution until his Honor (the Mayor) shall indicate the date at which he desires his order of November 30th to go into execution." This latter order has never been officially communicated to me, but I herewith enclose a copy, marked "C," taken from the newspapers of the city.

This order having been called to my attention by its publication in the newspapers, I addressed a letter to the Chief, under date of December 3, 1892, again commanding him to enforce the law. A copy of this letter is herewith enclosed, marked "D."

To this the Chief replied in a communication, under date of December 6, 1892, which I herewith submit, marked "E."

I replied to this communication under date of December 7, 1892, again urging upon the Chief the performance of his duty in the enforcement of the law. A copy of my reply I enclose herewith, marked "F." To this I have never received any response by word or act.

The Chief's order to the Superintendent of Police, of December 2, 1892, above referred to, directing him not "to eject or molest any of the inmates of the houses of prostitution" still remains in force, so far as I have been informed, and under its protection these houses openly, notoriously and defiantly carry on their infamous traffic, with the full knowledge and consent of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, the police of the city being expressly and publicly commanded not to molest them.

I have requested the City Attorney for his opinion as to my power to compel compliance by the Chief of the Department of Public Safety with my directions. I enclose herewith a copy of the opinion, marked "G." Upon an examination of it you will find that I am advised I have no power to compel obedience to my directions, and that it would seem to be my duty to submit the matter to Councils. That the act of June 14, 1887, in relation to the government of cities of the second class, under which our present city government is organized, should give the Mayor the power to direct public officers in the line of their duty under the law and the ordinances and yet purposely withheld from him any power or means by which to compel obedience to such directions, is an anomaly in the art of government, but it is unquestionably true.

By Section 26, of the Act of April 6, 1867, it is provided that

"Any officer or agent appointed by or under the authority of City Councils may be removed from office by a concurrent vote of the majority of all the members of each Council."

In view of this clear power vested in you, and which is the only power to compel decency of conduct in the Chief of departments, I beg you seriously to consider the conduct of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, as above detailed.

The Commonwealth has enacted:

"If any person shall keep and maintain a common bawdy house or place for the practice of fornication, or shall knowingly let or demise a house or part thereof to be so occupied, he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars and to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding two years." Purdon's Digest, 413.

In addition to this law of the Commonwealth for the suppression of such evil, your honorable bodies, in pursuance of power expressly given, have long since enacted an ordinance empowering the police to arrest the keepers of houses of ill-fame and all persons found therein, and providing for their proper trial and punishment before the magistrates of the city. This ordinance, of course, only empowers arrests to be made in a legal manner, and, in the opinion of the City Attorney, herewith submitted, is mandatory, imposing an imperative duty upon the police department to execute its provisions.

By the conduct of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety, above shown, that which the law-making power of the State has declared to be a crime is now protected and defended by the sworn guardians of the law; the imperative duty imposed upon the police by the ordinance of your honorable bodies is set at naught and deliberately repudiated; and the directions of the Mayor, given in pursuance of lawful authority, are publicly defied. The State has declared the keeping of a house of ill-fame a crime. The Chief declares it a necessary evil to be protected, under police surveillance. Your honorable bodies, speaking for the City of Pittsburgh, in pursuance of the law, have commanded the city police to arrest the keeper and the inmates of all such houses. The Chief has commanded the police not to molest them. The law gives the Mayor power to direct the Chief in the line of his duty under the law and the ordinances. The Chief defies the directions and contemptuously refuses any obedience.

This conduct on the part of the Chief is not the result of temper, or of an ill-considered resolution, but is the result of a deliberate and long-formed intention. This is manifest from his so-called "policy," as set forth in his Annual Report to your honorable bodies, under date of February 1, 1890. In that report he says:

"I have no hesitation in saying it (prostitution) is a vice as old as the world, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is probably a police necessity, and one of those conditions of human society that in great centers of population, like that of Pittsburgh, had better be tolerated, regulated and controlled by police surveillance rather than to attempt to crush it out."

His refusal to obey my directions, and his order to the police not to molest this vice, are in pursuance of this deliberately formed policy so long ago adopted.

I need hardly remind you that an officer whose sworn duty it is to execute the law has no right to know any policy but the policy of the law. It is only the supremest presumption in a policeman to erect himself into a censor of the policy so clearly defined by the law and the ordinances that he is sworn to execute, to reverse the policy of the State thus expressed, to abolish the law, and to set up to be a rule unto himself. It is certainly not his function to speculate upon social theories of his own, and to adopt them for the guidance of his conduct, when they are in violent conflict with the law that it is his duty to execute. It is not worth while, therefore, and would be presumptuous, to discuss the merits of the theory adopted by the Chief of the Department of Public Safety for dealing with this vice. His theory, however, is an utter abomination. To only one feature of it I need call your attention. If these houses are to be tolerated the degree of toleration, the subjects of toleration, are left wholly to the will of the Chief. The proprietress who meets his approval can conduct her business in safety; one who meets his disapproval is at once under the condemnation of the law. When the criminal to be tolerated is left to the arbitrary selection of the Chief, the motives governing the selection are secret and cannot be fathomed or exposed. This theory, therefore, can easily be made the convenient cloak for the levying of blackmail by the police department. It may be that a house that pays assessments to further the political ends of the officer in power may do business, and one that refuses such tribute may be suppressed. The price of conducting the infamous traffic may thus be made a corruption fund to debauch the voter and perpetuate the power of the dictator who grants at will the privilege to offend against the law without fear of punishment. Such a result, of course, is the inevitable result of the conduct of an officer who pretends to tolerate, regulate and control by police surveillance a vice that the law denounces as a crime to be punished.

The only security of the community is in the uniform, impartial and vigorous enforcement of the law. When the day comes, if it ever does come, that an executive officer can select, from the catalogue of crimes, such as are to be tolerated, regulated and controlled, in his discretion, and such as are to be prosecuted and punished, the time of absolute and corrupt despotism is at hand. A more impudent assumption of power on the part of a policeman can hardly be imagined than is involved in the publicly declared purpose of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety.

The anchor of popular government is loyalty to the law. Wilful, contemptuous defiance of law and legal authority must necessarily end in anarchy or absolute despotism. Such conduct on the part of the humblest citizen is to be deplored; much more is it to be regretted and resented in one entrusted by the people to enforce the law, and sworn to discharge his duty with fidelity. Such conduct in a public officer, setting forth a most demoralizing example to the community, demands the severest condemnation. It is time now to determine whether or not a policeman can, with impunity, defy a statute expressing the highest moral purpose of the State, the ordinance of Councils, and the lawful directions of his superior officer. If it be so, we can only trust a self-governing people to find a remedy.

I most urgently call upon you to vindicate your own character and the character of our community by promptly punishing the contumacious defiance of all law and legal authority exhibited in the conduct of the Chief of the Department of Public Safety in the subject matter herein referred to.

I urgently move you to exercise your power to remove from office a recalcitrant official, and to direct the City Attorney to co-operate with the District Attorney in securing his indictment and conviction in the Criminal Court.

Yours truly,

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

No. 1078.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,

PITTSBURGH, PA., March 13th, 1893. }

To the President and Members of Common Council:

GENTLEMEN:—Permit me to return to your honorable body without my approval "An Ordinance (Bill No. 1006, Common Council) making appropriations for the fiscal year beginning February 1st, 1893, and authorizing the expenditures thereof."

Outside of all other considerations there is one section in this ordinance to which I cannot subscribe, and which in itself would prevent my approval of the measure.

Section 9 says:

"The Chiefs of the several departments of the city are hereby authorized and empowered to provide supplies for their respective departments, to advertise for bids and let contracts for the same in the manner now provided by law and the Ordinances of said city, not however exceeding in any case the amounts appropriated for said purpose."

I do not believe this Section should find any place in an appropriation Ordinance. It has reference to a matter entirely foreign to that of making appropriations, and should not be incorporated in this measure. It, moreover, in my judgment, makes the whole bill of doubtful legality, as the Act of Assembly provides that "No bill shall be passed containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title."

If the Chiefs do not already possess authority to provide supplies for their respective departments, some of them have been exercising that power in a very free and unrestricted manner.

While I am in favor of conferring upon the Chiefs of departments the power to provide necessary supplies, I am very decided in the conviction that such power should be controlled and regulated in such a manner as to prevent the extravagant expenditure of public money and confine the purchases to supplies, materials and apparatus expressly authorized by law.

The Ordinance appropriates for the use of the Department of Public Safety the sum of $883,574.75, which is an increase of 27 per cent. over the expenditures of the department for the year ending February 1st, 1892. The Fire Bureau gets $340,399.40 and the Bureau of Police $421,095.00.

I do not say that the salaries paid our firemen and policemen are excessive. I do not believe they are. I believe that every efficient fireman and every faithful policeman in the employ of the city earns every dollar he receives.

But it is my deliberate opinion that money is lavishly expended in other directions.

Matrons and janitors of station houses receive as large or almost as large salaries as the patrolmen of the city, and the first named get more than the teachers of our public schools.

The employees of the dog pound receive larger salaries than half the firemen of the city, who are on duty twenty-four hours in the day.

It requires six men at a salary of $912.50 each per annum to run this very important bureau, notwithstanding the fact that the catching of dogs and the issuing of dog licenses are confined to two or three months in the year.

In the estimates of the Department of Public Safety provision is made for the payment of a salary of $1,500 a year to the Chief Sanitary Inspector of the Board of Health, who at present receives a salary of $1,000 per annum. The proposed salary would place this officer almost on a par with the Superintendent and give him $500 a year more money than is received by the Chief Clerk of the bureau.

By abandoning the use of Rook's hill farm and the store house on Wylie avenue considerable money might be saved to the city. The former is in my judgment an expensive and unnecessary luxury, and whatever supplies are kept in the latter could be removed to the commodious engine house recently erected in the First ward.

Perhaps the most important duty of one of the employees at the store-house to which I refer is to drive one of the officers of the city back and forth between his residence and City hall. Morning, noon and night this duty is performed with unceasing regularity.

It does seem that with the excellent facilities afforded by the cable and electric roads for reaching all parts of the city, many of the horses and buggies supplied at public expense might very properly be dispensed with.

By the exercise of a little more economy in the furnishing of engine and station houses, and in the purchase of house, stable and horse supplies and by relieving the payroll of useless and unnecessary employees, the expenses of the Department of Public Safety might be materially reduced.

In the estimates of the Department of Public Works an appropriation is asked to cover the salaries of 55 men in the Bureau of Engineering and Surveys for a complete year. In this list we find 18 inspectors, 7 chainmen, 8 rodmen and 5 transmitters, whose time is devoted to outdoor service. In view of the fact that their services cannot be profitably employed during a large part of the winter months, why should they be retained on the payroll the year round?

In the estimate for Schenley park provision is made for a timekeeper at $1,000 a year, a consulting engineer and landscape architect for 10 months at $2,000, an assistant engineer at $2,000 a year; 1 transmitter, 1 rodman and two chainmen for a full year. What necessity is there for the employment of these men during the whole year? What useful service can they render the city in the winter months? It seems like an inexcusable expenditure of public money to keep men on the payroll when their services cannot be advantageously utilized by the city. I observe also in the contemplated expenditures for Schenley park the same old item of $1,000 for making plans. This item makes its appearance whenever the Appropriation Ordinance is under consideration, and demands recognition. Let us hope that these plans may soon be finished.

In the Bureau of City Property there is a Superintendent who draws a salary of $1,800 a year. He is an excellent gentleman, and should be given something to do. If no duties attach to the position the sooner the office is abolished the better.

I believe that a proper reorganization of some of the departments would relieve the city of much dead timber and save the taxpayers thousands of dollars.

In the Bureau of Highways and Sewers there are eight sidewalk inspectors who should be retired and their duties transferred to the Bureau of Police. Such a course would insure much more efficient service and at the same time effect a saving of $7,500 a year.

During the past few years many thousands of dollars have been expended by the Department of Public Works in the purchase of wagons, carts, machinery, horses, &c., without any express authority so far as I am able to discover.

Such purchases, if made, should be duly authorized by an Ordinance of Council.

Just here let me suggest that it is worthy of consideration whether extensive park improvements could not be more economically made under contract than by the labor of employees of the city.

I might refer to many items in the Ordinance but time will not permit.

Believing that the appropriations could be reduced without impairing the efficiency of the departments, I respectfully return the Ordinance to your honorable body without my approval.

Yours truly,
H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

PITTSBURGH, PA., March 13th, 1893.

To the President and Members of Common Council:

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to return to your honorable body without my approval "An Ordinance (Bill No. 1007, C. C.) levying taxes and assessing water rents for the fiscal year beginning February 1st, 1893."

The first section of this Ordinance says: "For the purpose of providing sufficient revenue to meet the ordinary expenses of the city, to pay the interest on outstanding bonds and to discharge all other liabilities now due or which may become payable during the said year 1893, the taxes shall be and are hereby levied and assessed upon all property and other objects of taxation as follows."

This section is not true. The Ordinance does not levy sufficient taxes to meet the expenditures proposed in Bill No. 1006. It is true that the revenues are figured out on paper, but any person at all familiar with the history of past appropriations cannot but know that the visionary and extravagant receipts estimated in this Ordinance will not materialize in the year 1893. With appropriations aggregating $3,000,000 and a tax rate of 12 mills there was a shortage of $515,000 in round numbers at the close of 1892; and yet it is proposed in this Ordinance to provide the revenue necessary to meet an expenditure of $5,292,286 88 in the year 1893 with a tax rate of 11 mills.

That is to say, the appropriations are increased almost $300,000, while the revenue from the city tax is reduced $130,000.

In the first part of this statement there is nothing remarkable. History is simply repeating itself. The expenses are climbing higher and higher. The total appropriations for 1893 are more than $2,000,000 in excess of the appropriations of 1883, or an increase of 62 per cent. in five years, but what is remarkable is the reduction in the revenue from property tax. Not since the organization of our new system of government has there been such a showing. In some cases the millage has been reduced, but under such circumstances the valuations have gone up sufficiently to insure an increase year by year in the revenue from property tax.

It would seem that in this Ordinance a desperate effort had been made to redeem the pledge set forth in a circular to the taxpayers of the city on the eve of the recent election by the distinguished Chairman of the late Republican Campaign Committee.

To fulfil that promise, to reduce the revenues and yet increase the expenditures required astute financiering, and involved an arithmetical principle entirely novel, and which should be incorporated in the text books of our public schools.

If we had a deficiency of $515,000 at the close of 1892, with a property tax of $130,000 in excess of that of the present year, and with appropriations aggregating $300,000 less than the appropriations of the present year, what will the harvest be at the close of 1893?

By inflating the estimated receipts outside of the property tax, it is not a difficult matter to make the revenues appear equal to the proposed expenditures of the city; but will these fanciful figures produce tangible results?

An examination of the Appropriation Ordinance of 1892 shows that the estimated revenues other than those from city tax aggregated the sum of $2,119,802.50. Of this sum there was collected during the year $1,973,424.14, thus leaving a shortage in the estimated receipts from the sources to which I refer of $146,378.36.

In the Ordinance before me the revenues expected from these same sources are fixed at $2,542,286.86. This is an increase of $422,484.38 over the estimates of last year, and exceeds the amount collected during 1892 by $568,862.74.

In order to realize these estimates we shall have to receive just about thirty per cent. more money during the present year than was collected from the same source in 1892. Is it reasonable to expect this? I do not believe it is.

Should we only collect an amount equal to the sum collected in 1892, we would have a resulting shortage in the estimated revenues from sources referred to of $568,862.74. Should we collect an amount equal to the estimates of last year, which exceeded the sum realized by $146,378.36, we would still have a deficiency of $422,484.38.

Even granting that we shall realize from these estimates $250,000 more than was collected from same sources in 1892, the sum realized will fall short of the estimated revenues just about $320,000.

Add to this at least $330,000 of city tax that will pass into the hands of the Delinquent Tax Collector, and cannot in consequence be made available during the present year, and we have $630,000, or what seems to me will, under this Ordinance, be the deficiency at the close of 1893.

As an illustration of the extent to which the estimated receipts are inflated in this Ordinance, let me refer only to water rents. Last year the estimated revenue from this source was fixed at $640,000. There was collected during the year $905,000, in round numbers, thus leaving a shortage of $35,000.

The present Ordinance places the income from water rents at $770,000, which is an increase of twenty per cent. over the estimate of last year.

To realize this sum will require the collection of $165,000, or twenty-seven per cent. more revenue than was received from water rents in the year 1892. I do not believe this is possible. The growth of the city will justify no such expectation.

I might refer to other items in the Ordinance, but it is unnecessary at this time.

Either the tax rate should be increased two mills or the appropriations should be reduced at least $600,000.

The increase proposed by this Ordinance in the estimated receipts from all sources outside of city tax is greater than the increase in the estimated revenues from same sources for the three years ending February 1st, 1891.

The estimates are excessive. They are not honest. They may be used for the time being to secure large and extravagant appropriations without increasing the tax rate, but the inevitable result will be increased deficiencies and a heavier burden for the taxpayers in 1894.

Respectfully submitted.

H. I. GOURLEY,
Mayor.

Mr. MacGonigle moved

That Council take a recess for thirty minutes.

Which motion did not prevail.

Mr. Wilson moved

To reconsider the vote by which C. C. Bill No. 1007. An Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance levying taxes and assessing water rents for the fiscal year beginning February 1st, 1893." Failed to pass notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Platt.

Mr. King arose to a point of order, to wit: Mr. Platt not being present at the time the vote was taken, he could not second the motion.

The Chair ruled as follows: Section 9, Rule 4, Rules of Order, provides that "When a question has been once taken and decided affirmatively or negatively it shall be in order for any member who may have voted in the majority to move for a reconsideration, but says nothing about a seconder of the motion, and in the absence of a specific rule on the subject it would be in order for any member to second the motion for a reconsideration." Therefore the point of order was "not well taken."

Mr. King arose to a point of order, viz: That Sec. 9, Rule 4, provides that "A member who may have voted in the majority," may move for a reconsideration, and Mr. Wilson having voted in the minority he was not competent to move a reconsideration of the vote.

The Chair ruled: That the bill not having received a legal majority of votes to pass it over the objections of the Mayor, it would require a member who voted in the minority to move a reconsideration of the vote, and Mr. Wilson having voted in the minority he was competent to make the motion to reconsider the vote, therefore the point of order was "not well taken."

The Chair to sustain its position quoted from Smull's Hand Book, page 718, as follows:

"The point of order was raised. That when a bill fails on its final passage for want of a constitutional majority, does it require those who voted for the bill, who may be of a majority of the votes cast, or those voting against the bill, although of a minority of the votes cast, to move to reconsider? The speaker ruled that it would require the motion to reconsider to be made by those voting against the passage of the bill."

Mr. O'Donnell moved

That Council do now adjourn.

Upon which motion he demanded a call of the ayes and noes, and the demand having been sustained, the ayes and noes were ordered to be taken, and being taken, were:

PITTSBURGH, March 27th, 1893.

To the President and Members of Common Council:

GENTLEMEN:—I beg leave to return to your honorable body without my approval the accompanying resolution directing the Department of Public Safety to consummate the purchase of property at Butler street and Penn avenue for use of Bureau of Fire.

The purchase of this property has been authorized by your honorable bodies, and in pursuance of a resolution passed by you some months ago a contract or agreement was entered into by the Chief of the Department of Public Safety to take the property.

I am not, therefore, opposed to the purchase of the property, but the consummation of the purchase must be effected by an Ordinance and not by a resolution of Councils.

I would suggest, therefore, that your honorable bodies pass the Ordinance necessary to accomplish the purpose intended by this resolution.

Respectfully yours,

H. I. GOURLEY,

Mayor.

Which was read and received.

Mr. Shannon moved

That the communication be referred to the Committee on Public Safety with instructions to prepare an Ordinance for the same.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 1325.

PITTSBURGH, March 27th, 1893.

To the President and Members of Common Council:

GENTLEMEN:—I hereby acknowledge the receipt of the resolutions of your honorable bodies, passed March 9th, 1893, directing me to make a criminal information against J. O. Brown, Chief of the Department of Public Safety, upon such charges as I see fit, and reciting that you have no knowledge of any violation of the law on the part of Mr. Brown.

That you should direct the criminal prosecution of a servant of yours in the same breath that you profess utter ignorance of any misconduct of which he is probably guilty, is, to say the least, most remarkable, and not in keeping with the slightest sense of the official duties imposed upon you by law.

The Act of March 18th, 1875, Thomson's Digest, page 84, gives you exclusive supervision of the official conduct of all city officers, and directs that you shall examine the ground of all reasonable complaints made against any of them, with the exception of police officers, and that you shall cause all their violations and neglect of duty to be promptly punished or reported to the proper tribunal for correction.

From this it is perfectly clear that the primary duty of inquiry and determination is with you and not with an Alderman upon criminal information made.

As by these resolutions you openly profess not to have made any inquiry in this instance, and have reached no conclusion as to the probable guilt or innocence of the officer charged, I would suggest that you had better follow the course laid down for you by the statutes in such cases, instead of straying into strange paths with the result, if not the purpose, of evading a plain duty imposed upon you by the law.

I can find no law imposing upon the individual filling for the time being the office of Mayor the duty of becoming private prosecutor of public officers appointed by and responsible to Councils. I know of no authority in Councils to direct the Mayor to become such prosecutor.

My complaint against the Chief of the Department of Public Safety is not of a private or personal character. All I have done has been done solely in the discharge of the official obligation of the Mayor, as imposed by the law, and expounded by the City Attorney. I have no personal quarrel with Mr. Brown, and can see no reason why I should transcend my official obligation. If you will only discharge yours there will be no necessity of individuals volunteering their services that the ends of justice may be accomplished.

The only charge the Mayor has made against the Chief of the Department of Public Safety is wilful and deliberate refusal to perform a plain official duty by enforcing the law and Ordinance against houses of ill repute.

The evidence to support the charge is the official correspondence I have submitted to you with my recent message, and which you have not taken the pains to read; when you do read it you will be no longer able to profess the ignorance proclaimed by you in these resolutions. Upon this single charge, with the evidence presented in the official correspondence to support it, I have made the suggestion and urged the action set forth in my recent communication to your honorable bodies.

If your honorable bodies can for one moment believe, or imagine that you can make others believe that, by the passage of these resolutions, you are discharging the duty imposed upon you by the law to investigate and to secure the punishment of official misconduct in your appointees, it is useless to undertake to enlighten you.

You have complete authority, and under the law it is your duty to investigate, and if you believe from the evidence submitted and now before you, when you come to read it, that your appointee has been guilty of misconduct, you have ample and efficient power to secure his punishment without the necessity of calling upon some one else to discharge a duty which the law imposes upon you.

Let me add, that any honesty of purpose would require your own judgment upon the evidence offered as to the misconduct of your officer to be expressed, and some measure of your own power exercised, before you throw yourselves helplessly upon the judgment of a jury in the Criminal Court.

Being unwilling to relieve you of duties and responsibilities which belong to your honorable bodies I can neither comply with, nor approve, your resolution of instructions.

Respectfully yours,

H. I. GURLEY,
Mayor.

Which was read.

Mr. Thorn moved

That the communication be referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

A JOINT RESOLUTION—Of Councils authorizing the Chief of the Department of Public Works to acquire property for Water Works purposes.

WHEREAS, The rapid increase in the population of the City of Pittsburgh, and the erection of private and public buildings make it necessary to provide an adequate supply of water for the protection and welfare of the people, and

WHEREAS, The present supply of water is inadequate to such demands and necessity, and there is danger of loss to property as well as most serious inconvenience in some portions of the city, it is therefore believed by the Councils of said City to be a public necessity to increase the facilities for supplying water to all the people within the corporate limits, and in order so to do it will be necessary to procure additional ground whereon to construct suitable water works and improvements, but it is found impossible to agree with the owners of the property most desired for this public purpose as to the price to be paid therefor, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, that the Chief of the Department of Public Works is hereby authorized and directed to proceed in the name and under the authority of said city, to have properly and lawfully condemned, in the manner prescribed by law, such real estate as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, the amount to be so appropriated not to exceed fifty acres in extent, and to lie within the limits of the said city.

No. 92.

A N ORDINANCE—Granting the consent of Councils to the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors, lessees and assigns to enter upon and use certain streets for its railway, and to connect with certain other passenger railways.

WHEREAS, By reason of the termini of the Pittsburgh Traction Company, Citizens' Traction Company and the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Traction Company being situated at the intersection of Fifth and Liberty avenues, and the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company crossing the intersection of said avenues, the operation of the cars of said traction companies and said railway company is attended with more or less danger to the public; and

Whereas, by relieving said termini situated at the intersection of Fifth and Liberty avenues by such a distribution of the cars of said traction companies and said railway company as would send the cars thereof to other and additional termini, the danger to the public arising from their operations at that point would be greatly lessened if not wholly obviated; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the City of Pittsburgh in Select and Common Councils assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same. That the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors, lessees and assigns, is hereby authorized to construct, maintain and operate a street railway upon the streets, avenues and highways hereinafter mentioned, either by itself or through the agency of the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Traction Company, its lessees. And both said lessor and lessee shall have the right to construct, maintain and operate upon said streets, avenues and highways the necessary machinery, apparatus and appliances to operate said railway as an electric railway, subject to all the limitations, restrictions and regulations of a General Ordinance entitled "A General Ordinance relating to the entry upon, over or under or the use or occupation of any street, lane or alley or any part thereof for any purpose by any passenger or street railway company, or by companies operating street or passenger railways, and providing reasonable regulations pertaining thereto for the public convenience and safety," approved the 25th day of February, A. D. 1890; provided, however, that regulations prescribing the paving of streets with block stone between the tracks and one foot outside thereof of street railways shall not apply to those streets of the streets hereinmentioned which are now paved with block stone pavement, with regard to the grant hereby made to said lessor and lessee.

SEC. 2. That the streets, avenues and highways referred to in Sec. 1 hereof, and which said lessor and lessee, their successors and assigns, are hereby authorized to use for accomplishing the purpose set forth in the preambles hereof, and upon which said lessor and lessee, their respective successors and assigns, are authorized to construct, maintain and operate an electric street railway as follows, viz: Beginning at the North Side bridge at the foot of Seventh street; thence to Duquesne way to Sixth street to connect with the present tracks of the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company; thence by the same along Duquesne way with single or double tracks to Fifth street; thence along Duquesne way to Water street to connect with other tracks of the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Traction Company, operating the Pittsburgh Union Passenger Railway Company; thence along Water street to Wood street, there with the consent of the Allegheny Traction Company to connect with the tracks of the Transverse Passenger Railway Company, provided that if the consent of the Second Avenue Passenger Railway can be obtained said lessor and lessee shall have the right to contract for a joint use of said Second Avenue Passenger Railway Company's tracks which are now laid on Duquesne way, but in case no such contract can be made, then the lessor and lessee shall have the right to straddle said tracks on Duquesne way belonging to said Second Avenue Passenger Railway Company, and shall have the right to cross at an angle the tracks of the Pittsburgh & West End Passenger Railway Company, situate on Water street between the mouth of Penn avenue and the approach to the Point bridge.

Also, beginning at the North Side bridge at the foot of Seventh street to connect there, with the consent of the Allegheny Traction Company with the tracks of the Transverse Passenger Railway, thence along Seventh street to Liberty street.

Also, beginning at the corner of Sixth street and Penn avenue, there to connect, with the consent of the Citizens' Traction Company, with the south track of the Citizens' Passenger Railway Company, or in the absence of such consent of the Citizens' Traction Company to straddle said south track of the Citizens' Passenger Railway Company upon Penn avenue from Sixth street to Seventh street, and at Seventh street, with the consent of the Allegheny Traction Company, to connect with the tracks of the Transverse Passenger Railway Company.

Also, with the consent of the Allegheny Traction Company, to connect with the track of the Transverse Passenger Railway at the corner of Sixth and Liberty, where said streets intersect with Market street.

Also, that said lessor and lessee, with the consent of the Allegheny Traction Company, shall have the right to operate their cars over the streets, avenues and highways now used and occupied by the Allegheny Traction Company for the operation of their cars, and such other streets, avenues and highways as said Allegheny Traction Company as lessor of the Transverse Passenger Railway Company may have the right to operate its cars.

Also, beginning at the intersection of Liberty, Market and Sixth street; thence along Market street to Fourth avenue; thence along Fourth avenue to Wood street, there, with the consent of the Allegheny Traction Company, to connect with its tracks; provided, however, that if the Exchange Street Railway Company be authorized to lay tracks on Market street, then the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors, lessees and assigns, shall obtain the consent of said Exchange Street Railway Company to operate over its tracks on Market street; and the said Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors and assigns, is in like manner authorized to agree with such street railway companies as have rights upon Fourth avenue and have tracks laid thereon, between Market and Wood streets, to use such tracks for the operation of its railway, or to lay additional tracks upon Market street or Fourth avenue over the routes specified in this paragraph.

SEC. 3. That the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors and assigns, by itself or through the agency of the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Traction Company, its lessee shall have the right to make connections with any suitable construction or apparatus with any street railway which the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors and assigns may now own or hereafter acquire by lease, purchase or otherwise, or which may be leased or operated by said Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Traction Company, its lessee, now or hereafter in connection with the railway of the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company, provided that the right to make such connections shall be confined to those streets upon which the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester Passenger Railway Company, its successors or assigns, and the street railway company with which such connection is to be made, have the right to construct and operate street railways; and whereon the tracks of said street railway companies connect or cross or are authorized to connect or cross; and provided, further, that said connections shall be made subject to and in conformity with the provisions of the General Ordinance hereinbefore mentioned.

SEC. 4. That any ordinance or part of ordinance conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same is hereby repealed so far as the same affects this ordinance.
